PRESIDENTS OF THREE REPUBLICS CONVERSED TODAY

Hoover Talked Over Radio Telephone To So. American Chiefs

BY HARRY W. FRANTZ
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, April 3—(UP)—Opening new radio-telephone service to South America President Hoover made good-will calls to the Presidents of Chile and Uruguay today.

By the modern wizardry of science, Mr. Hoover was able, within a few minutes, to exchange greetings similar to those which required a six weeks voyage on his part during his good-will tour of South America two years ago.

Arrangements had been made for President Hoover to talk also with President Irigoyen of Argentina, but a cablegram from Buenos Aires today stated that President Irigoyen was too ill to participate in the ceremonies. Irigoyen cited his physician's orders as the reason for cancelling the engagement.

Recalled Reception
President Hoover, in speaking with President Banzer of Chile, recalled "the inspiring and cordial reception" extended to him in Santiago during his visit there in 1928 and expressed special gratification in participating in the inauguration of radio-telephone communication.

"A brief span of forty years serves to encompass the extraordinary history of modern means of communication between our respective countries," President Hoover said.

"In 1890 the first direct cable service was inaugurated, effecting a revolutionary improvement in communication which has in the subsequent years been duplicated by the establishment of direct and speedy communication by means of airplanes and now by the present radio-telephone service.

"Concurrently sea traffic has been immeasurably facilitated by the opening of the Panama Canal and by the never-ending improvement in the quality and speed of the vessels which ply between our two countries."

To Uruguay Chief
In addressing President Campesino of Uruguay, President Hoover referred to his visit "to the great Capital of the progressive Republic of Uruguay," and declared that the increasingly numerous ties of communications "form the material part of the strong bond, the other part of which is intellectual and spiritual fraternity, that fortunately exists between our two countries."

Acting Secretary of State Joseph C. Gurnea, speaking to Chilean Minister of Interior David Hermasilla, asserted that the new means of communication "will contribute to the better understanding and friendship of the citizens of Chile and the United States, because it cannot be disputed that false prejudices and misconceptions may unconsciously be entertained and spread with one another."

RASKOB TO BE QUESTIONED BY SEN. ROBINSON

Interesting Session Of the Lobby Committee Seems Probable

BY PAUL R. MALLON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, April 3—(UP)—What Senator Robinson, Rep., Ind., promises will be "a most interesting session" is to begin before the Senate Lobby committee tomorrow when Chairman John G. Raskob, of the Democratic National Committee is called to testify.

The Indiana dry, only regular Republican on the coalition-controlled committee, has investigated Raskob's known contribution to the Association against the Prohibition Amendment, and some other matters he declined to reveal.

His examination of the Democratic Chairman has aroused political interests here because the majority of the committee now is preparing a report to the Senate on the activities of the Republican National Committee Chairman, Claudius H. Huston, who used funds collected from a Muscle Shoals lobby organization to buttress his speculative account with a New York broker.

The Huston report, a mere citation of the evidence as the committee found it, may be offered to the Senate tomorrow.

Meanwhile Huston's expected resignation has not come. Rather, a waiting contest has developed between Huston and the White House, with neither party ready to move.

Called Retaliation
The duty of protecting Republican interests in the Huston case has fallen largely upon Robinson. His calling of Raskob is considered by Democrats as a retaliation. In addition, it was learned today Robinson expects soon to present to the Senate a report concerning the Democratic Senator King of Utah, charged with employing a representative of the German dye industry to help him prepare tariff data.

"I can't tell what I want to ask him," Robinson said today, when questioned about Raskob's appearance. "That would let the cat out of the bag, but I think it will be a very interesting session."

On Tuesday the Lobby committee will hear Rep. Tinkham, Rep., Mass., concerning his charges of lobbying against the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. Later officials of the various wet and dry organizations will be summoned.

These leaders escaped cross-examination before the House Judiciary committee yesterday when the dry side of the hearings was closed. Today the committee went into executive session to work on four of the remaining Wickersham prohibition reform bills.

The committee expects to report the Stobbs amendment to the Jones act, defining minor violations, and the bill to authorize state, county and municipal officers to make arrests for violation of the Federal prohibition law.

Hardesty Is Freed By Order Of Court

Guy Hardesty was ordered released from the county jail this morning by Judge Henry Edwards in his decision given in the Circuit Court at the conclusion of the habeas corpus proceedings instigated Tuesday by Attorneys H. A. Brooks and Edward Jones. Hardesty had been held under bonds of $1,250 on a statutory charge.

In announcing his decision, Judge Edwards stated that as State's Attorney he would have taken the same action as was taken to obtain Hardesty's return from New York to Dixon to answer to the charges.

"The officers of Lee county have acted in good faith and honesty, in this case in the extradition of the defendant," Judge Edwards stated. "The duties of the State's Attorney necessitate his acting quickly in many cases and in the interests of the public."

When the court concluded his remarks by ordering Hardesty's release, the defendant left his seat and extended his hand to thank the court. "You do not need to thank me," Judge Edwards replied, "as I would have held you if I could, but in this case, the law requires your release."

Burglars Damaged School Building

Sullivan, Ill., April 3—(UP)—Burglars who entered two school buildings here took only ten dollars in cash but they did more than $1000 worth of damage.

They forced entry into a grade school where they obtained two axes. After ransacking the grade school where two attempts to open the vault in the principal's office failed.

Apparently enraged at their ill success the robbers became spiteful and doors were chopped with wanton abandon.

Broker Perpetual Passenger On Liner

New York, April 3—(UP)—Unless someone stops him, J. T. Jeffries, retired broker of Philadelphia, may be listed as a perpetual passenger on the Anchor liner, Caledonia.

Jeffries originally sailed on the liner for a European tour but when the ship returned from Glasgow he was still passenger. He explained there was no recreation like sea travel and having no fault to find with the line, he retained one of its best suites.

The ship made three tours of the West Indies and upon completion of the season's last cruise yesterday, Mr. Jeffries was still on board.

He will sail for Glasgow on Saturday—in the same suite.

LEECH IMPOSED HEAVY PENALTY IN BOOZE CASE

Granville Miller And Robert Jones Sent To Jail: Fined

Judge Leech in the County Court yesterday afternoon pronounced sentence in two liquor cases in which Granville H. Miller of Brooklyn township and Robert Jones of Dixon were the defendants. In each case the defendant was found guilty by a jury in the County Court on three counts, two for possession and one for the sale of intoxicating liquor. On the possession counts, Judge Leech ordered that the defendants pay fines of $200 and costs on each count and stand committed in the county jail until the fine and costs are paid. On the sale counts the sentence of the court called for 30 day jail terms. Attorney H. A. Brooks entered a motion for a 30 day stay of mitimus in which to permit the appeal of the cases to the May term of the Appellate Court.

Fred Bott of this city was not in court and Judge Leech continued his case until Saturday morning. State's Attorney Keller requested that Bott's bond be forfeited in the event that he was not present in court Saturday and Attorney Brooks assured the court that Bott was residing in Keokuk, Iowa, and would be present Saturday to receive sentence. It was expected that his case would also be taken to the appellate court on a writ of error as in the cases of Miller and Jones.

When the court concluded his remarks by ordering Hardesty's release, the defendant left his seat and extended his hand to thank the court. "You do not need to thank me," Judge Edwards replied, "as I would have held you if I could, but in this case, the law requires your release."

New Process Will Make Flying Safer

Ithaca, N. Y., Apr. 3—(UP)—Aviation looked forward today to an era of safer flying through the discovery of a process which eliminates the formation of ice on airplane wings.

The device is a product of about two years of experimentation, and is a system to utilize a flat rubber tubing along the "leading edges" of the plane's wings and surface, where ice usually forms. The rubber is impregnated with a chemical oil upon which it is difficult for ice to collect.

The oil, however, is not relied on solely. A button in the pilot's cockpit enables him to inflate the rubber tubes in an instant breaking up any ice layers.

ATTY. GEN. VOICES HIS OPPOSITION TO JONES LAW CHANGE

Fearful Of Results If Penalties Provided Are Modified

BY CECIL B. DICKSON

Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, April 3—(AP)—Opposition to modification of the Jones law, which provides heavy maximum penalties for violations of the prohibition statutes, has been filed with the House Judiciary committee by Attorney General Mitchell.

In a confidential communication, he objected particularly to a measure by Representative Stobbs, Republican, Massachusetts, to modify this law by defining slight and casual offenders and fixing the maximum penalty for such offenses at six months imprisonment and a fine of $500. The Jones statute, he said, should have a longer trial period.

At the same time, the Attorney General disapproved two bills by Representative Christopherson, Republican, South Dakota, embodying plans for defining felonies and misdemeanors under the United States code and for setting up juryless trials before United States Commissioners as had been recommended by the Hoover Law Enforcement Commission.

Approved Two Bills
He approved in general two other bills written by Christopherson and recommended to Congress by the Hoover Commission to relieve congested federal courts but suggested several changes.

The Attorney General would have the commission plan for trials by United States Commissioners operative in district courts only when the judges order it, with the commissioners who would conduct trials specifically designated. He urged that the maximum penalty for slight or casual violations be fixed at six months in jail, a $1,000 fine or both, leaving the classification of minor cases to the discretion of the courts.

In addition the Attorney General favored the modification of one Commission measure by eliminating a provision which would give District Attorneys authority to proceed against a dry law offender on a felony charge after being tried before a Commissioner for a misdemeanor.

Fearful Of Result
"The chairman of the Commission," Mitchell wrote, "informs me that he has no objection to these suggestions."

With reference to the Stobbs bill, Mitchell said he was fearful the result of the enactment of the measure "will be to reduce the penalties for substantial violations, such as manufacture, sale and transportation, to a point below the penalties provided before the enactment of the Jones law."

He contended the Jones law should not be changed and added that "sufficient time has not elapsed to determine the efficacy of the increased penalties" under that law, which provides a maximum fine of $10,000 and five years imprisonment.

The Judiciary committee resumed a study of the measures today, along with a proposal to recommend appointment of additional federal judges to handle the increased court business.

Head Of Illinois Laundrymen Prompt

Omaha, Neb., March 3—(AP)—I. A. Murray, Rockford, Ill., president of the Illinois Laundry Owners Association signed the register at a local hotel yesterday.

"Where can I find convention headquarters?" he inquired casually of a clerk.

"Bakers Association, sir?" the clerk asked.

"No, I'm here to attend the Nebraska Laundrymen's Convention which opens today," the Illinoisan retorted.

"You'll have to wait one week, sir. That's next week. Now we'd be glad to have you stay with us. We have a nice room for—"

NEGRO MURDERS WOMAN AND HER CHILD: IS SLAIN

Husband And Father Of Victims Meets Out Swift Justice

Sebring, Fla., April 3—(AP)—Mrs. William E. Carver, member of a prominent Philadelphia family, and her two-year-old son were dead today, victims of an axe attack by a Negro yard boy.

The Negro, Ben Whitehead, was shot to death by Mrs. Carver's husband immediately after the attack yesterday.

The Carvers, who came here recently from Philadelphia, were taking an afternoon nap. Mrs. Carver was awakened and cried out as she saw the man in her bedroom. He struck Mrs. Carver and she fell dead on the bed. Another blow killed the child. A baby in another room was not harmed.

Carver, who was asleep in an adjoining bedroom, rushed to his wife's room just after the attack and shot the Negro to death.

The Negro was in the act of taking Mrs. Carver's jewels from her dressing table when she was awakened.

Sublette township voted a bond issue of $20,000 to be used this morning in the improvement of roads. Three years ago Sublette voted a $40,000 bond issue.

Reynolds township at Tuesday's election, voted a $40,000 bond issue to be used in the improvement of roads this summer.

Hamilton Enthuses Over Yancey Flight

Hamilton, Bermuda, April 3—(UP)—Captain Lewis A. Yancey's forced landings on his remarkable flight from New York failed to dim Hamilton's enthusiasm today for the remarkable feat of the noted air navigator, who reached Bermuda after eight and one-half hours of actual flying, with two stops on the way.

With auspicious weather conditions, Yancey and his two companions, Zeh Houck and William Alexander, probably will attempt their return trip to New York soon.

MANY INJURED IN BLAST FELT OVER 30 MILES

Broadway, New York, Is Also Rocked By Explosions Today

Philadelphia, April 3—(UP)—A series of explosions in the plant of the Pennsylvania Fireworks Display Company at Devon today brought death to at least nine persons, injuries of varying degree to scores and damage to virtually every building in the vicinity.

So ear-splitting was the din that rumblings were heard more than 30 miles away; so fearful was the force that as blast followed blast men and women were whirled from their feet, motor cars nearby were swept into ditches, a moving train was rocked, rooftops were dislodged and window panes cracked in wholesale numbers.

Fire Followed Blasts
The first explosion came in a storage shed, central among the 50 buildings that comprise the fireworks plant, used to house aerial bombs.

Fire broke out and as it leaped from one structure to another it set off other pyrotechnics. Only heroic efforts by volunteer fire-fighters, hastily recruited from Devon and other suburban towns, finally extinguished the flames that were thriving on the powder designed to enliven Fourth of July and other celebrations.

At 1 P. M., three hours after the first explosion, nine bodies had been recovered from the debris of the plant. Workers believed the wreckage might yield two other bodies.

Victims Blown To Pieces
So vicious was the concussion that the victims literally were blown to pieces, thus hampering attempts at identification. Only by a check-up of the fireworks company employees could an accurate death list be obtained. The first fatality list stood as follows:

Victor Antonio, 65, watchman.
Luigi Purizzone, son-in-law of Alexander Vardarro, proprietor of the fireworks plant.

Fourteen persons received injuries severe enough to require treatment in Bryn Mawr hospital, four miles distant. Between 70 and 90 other persons received medical attention on the scene, in Devon houses or at the Devon station of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

BROADWAY ROCKED

New York, April 3—(UP)—Thousands of office workers left their offices today and one section of Broadway was roped away after a series of 12 conduit explosions at Broadway and 30th Street.

Several were injured so badly they were taken to hospitals.

Buildings along Broadway were shaken by the blasts and many manhole covers and debris were scattered; reports said the first explosion shattered a main gas line and that flames shot up many feet high.

A patrolman was standing on one manhole covering and was thrown many feet.

More than 100 police, a dozen fire companies, and half a dozen ambulances were centered in the district. Thousands attracted to the scene impeded police and they closed the area. Traffic on the west side section of the important midtown trading area was clogged.

Epilepsy Is Fatal To State Patient

Frank Tegg, aged 29, a patient at the Dixon State Hospital, died last evening at the institution while suffering an epileptic seizure.

He with other patients from his ward, was on his way to the assembly hall to attend a motion picture show when he suffered a seizure. He was taken back to the ward and placed in a chair and within a short time suffered a second seizure and expired.

Coroner Frank M. Banker conducted an inquest over the remains at the Jones funeral home this morning, the jury finding that death was due to epilepsy. The body will be taken to Peoria this afternoon for burial.

William Herrick Died This Morning: Invalid 12 Years

William A. Herrick, a life long resident of Dixon, passed away at the home of his brother, Charles Herrick, 610 Second street at 12:30 this morning. For the past 12 years he had been an invalid and confined to his bed.

Mr. Herrick was born in Dixon, April 26, 1857 and for many years conducted a tin shop here until failing health forced his retirement from active life. One brother, Charles Herrick, and a niece, Gladys May Herrick of this city survive.

Funeral services will be conducted from the residence Friday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. B. H. C. Caver, pastor of the Christian church officiating and interment will be in Oakwood.

WIG, SPECTACLES OF MURDERED MAN CLOAKED SWINDLE

Missouri Dentist Held For Murder In Plot For Insurance

Bentonville, Ark., April 3—(UP)—The wig, spectacles and smooth-shaven lip which William Robert Pearman, a former Missouri garage mechanic, assumed overnight to become an incognito traveler and a man of wealth had been branded today as a disguise to cloak an alleged attempt to perpetrate a big insurance swindle.

Pearman's body lies in a morgue at Gravette, near here, where he was shot to death, the victim of a "double crosser" last Saturday.

He was identified yesterday by Miss Pearl Powell, who as a waitress knew him intimately in his hometown of Columbia, Mo. She identified him even to the point of fingernails and to the fact that he dyed his temples to match his wig.

Officers held Dr. Andrew J. Bass, retired dentist and wealthy fellow townsman of Pearman, whom the waitress said Pearman was associated with in what he believed was "get rich quick" land deal in Arkansas.

Doctor "Surprised"
Bass, evincing surprise at his arrest, was charged with first degree murder in Pearman's death, after he identified Pearman as "William Flota," whom officers discovered had been missing from his supposed home in Martinsburg, Mo., for years.

Insurance investigators alleged the dentist carried four life insurance policies of "William Flota" later revealed as Pearman, to the amount of $200,000.

This insurance, according to investigators, was supposed to secure him a fortune of $200,000.

Miss Powell, who told her story to a grand jury, said Pearman told her secretly last November that he and Bass and another party, so far unnamed, were engaged in a large Arkansas land deal which would bring each of them at least $50,000.

She asserted he confided he was to pose as another man, a person of age and wealth, and that she had cured his nails, formerly blackened by mechanic's grease, to give him distinction. She alleged Bass paid Pearman "$50 a week" to assume the role.

Made Several Trips
In this disguise Pearman made frequent mysterious trips out of Columbia, she said, and on one of the confided he had been compelled to take out a big insurance policy, examination for which he "hoped" he wouldn't pass.

Although Pearman had a wife and family in Columbia, he corresponded with the waitress. She revealed he wired her from Kansas City March 23 advising he was going to Texas, Arkansas.

She became anxious when she read accounts of Dr. Bass' presence in Arkansas and his identifying a body, coupled with Pearman's silence.

Insurance agents revealed Pearman, posing as "Flota," had lived in the Hotel Muehlbach, Kansas City, where he won confidence of several Kansas City business men who endorsed recommendations for the big policy. He posed as a retired business man recently returned from a trip to China, they said.

Dr. Bass remained calm in jail. He is a graduate of the University of Missouri and Washington University, St. Louis, but retired from dentistry when he married the only daughter of a wealthy landowner of Columbia and settled down to manage a large farm near the Missouri university town.

WARD CO. WILL SPEND MILLION FOR SALE ADS

WardWeekSaleTheme

Of Extensive Campaign By Firm

The Ward Week Sale which is being advertised by the local Montgomery Ward & Co. store is a nation-wide event. More than 550 of the company's stores are participating.

Mr. Haight, manager of the local Montgomery Ward & Co. store said this morning, "This is not our first Ward Week sale. If our past experience is repeated, every enterprising merchant in the city will profit by the crowds this sale will bring to Dixon, during the sale. Although we are using several different advertising methods to reach our customers within a radius of thirty to forty miles of the city, we are putting most of our effort into newspaper advertising."

"It is estimated that our company will spend nearly a million dollars for advertising in the local newspapers to make this sale a success. This evidence of our confidence in the pulling power of the local newspaper is not a matter of guess work. Our experience over a period of three years has convinced us that there is no better medium for reaching the buying public."

"This April sale is intended to stimulate a generally wide-spread interest not only in our store, but in the business enterprises of this community. We tried to make the bargain appeal so strong that this event will attract customers who come here seldom. I am sure that the business men of this city will profit by the throngs of shoppers this widely advertised sale will bring to this community. Previous sales of this kind have proved conclusively that every wide-awake merchant in towns where we have stores is benefited tremendously during this week of this sale."—Adv.

N. D. DEMOCRATS
PLEGGED TO WET
PLATFORM TODAYRepeal Of Eighteenth
Amendment, Volstead
Act, Their Plea

Jamestown, N. D., March 3—(AP)—Democratic party candidates for office in North Dakota today were pledged to a platform containing a section urging repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead enforcement act.

The platform was adopted at the Democratic state convention here yesterday when Pierce Blewett of Jamestown was chosen to head the party's state ticket in the June primaries as its gubernatorial candidate.

The prohibition plank said the 18th amendment has brought "ruination to the farmer" because he has been "robbed of his market for corn, rye, barley and hops, thereby throwing farm production out of balance. The plank also asserts that "ten years under prohibition has resulted in a reign of intemperance in words, expenditure of money, crime and corruption."

North Dakota normally is a strong Republican state, but Democratic leaders, including H. E. Perry of Ellendale, State Chairman, said they foresaw a good chance of Democratic victories in this state next fall through the prohibition plank in their platform.

Rich Gold Field To Be Exploited Soon

Paris, April 3—(UP)—Mrs. J. J. Brown, widow of the Colorado mine owner "Leadville Johnny" Brown, signed a contract today with a group of Arizona and Montana copper miners whereby they will operate in rich virgin gold fields of the Rocky Mountains.

The fields include 13 mining claims totaling 265 acres around Leadville, from which $70,000,000 worth of gold already was said to have been produced.

The contract, signed in the presence of the American Consul General, was with a group directed by Arthur Curtis James.

"Geologists claim this field is the greatest remaining gold basin in the United States," Mrs. Brown said. "My husband staked claims there 30 years ago but was not then able to extract ore from them. The field has never been touched and there is no estimate of how much gold there is in it, but certainly I believe it will be greatly in excess of 1,000,000,000."

It was understood that Mrs. Brown's contract calls for immediate start of mining operations, the costs to be borne by the copper interests and profits to be split equally.

Naval Conference
Prospects Bright

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

London, April 3—(AP)—After ten weeks of difficult negotiations, during which obstacles often were encountered that seemed insurmountable, the naval conference this afternoon was recorded in American, British and Japanese circles as having achieved great success.

This position was reached after a conference this morning wherein the Americans and British accepted the Japanese government's reservations to the American-British naval proposals.

Thus was assured at least a powerful three-power agreement as an outcome of the conference even if France and Italy cannot participate. In this connection observers were much interested in a statement made this afternoon by A. V. Alexander, first Lord of the British Admiralty. Speaking at Brixton, Mr. Alexander said:

"This week the conference is much more hopeful than it was a little time ago."

Science Called Upon
To Help Solve Crime

Chicago, April 3—(UP)—Microscope and test tube were pressed into service today as science sought solution of the mystery murder of a young housewife who was strangled to death with a piece of ribbon snipped from a roll she had kept in her own handbag.

Northwestern University's scientific crime detection laboratory was the scene of the research that may reveal who murdered Mrs. Mildred Helsing, 26, as she went about household tasks in a west side apartment Tuesday evening.

The verdict of lens and reagent, after tests of bits of skin removed from beneath the finger nails of the slain woman, may send someone to the electric chair. Police predict the result of the tests will free the young husband, Reuben Helsing, from suspicion that necessarily rests upon him despite his straight-forward story.

Seek Kidnapers Of
Six-Year-Old Girl

Detroit, April 3—(AP)—The story of a 9-year-old boy and those of several of his schoolmates were practically the only clues on which police of the Detroit metropolitan area were basing their search today for six-year-old Mary Suboch and her kidnaper.

The girl and her older brother, Joseph, were picked up by a strange man in an automobile while on their way home from school in Dearborn, a suburb, Tuesday noon. They were driven about 40 miles before the boy was put out near the Detroit city hall on pretext of going to buy candy. Joseph said at that point the trail of the kidnaper has been lost. Children who were nearby said the two had been soliciting rides from passing motorists.

Neither the Suboch family nor relatives are able to offer any motive for the kidnapping of the girl. It was learned today that Mrs. Suboch recently was bequeathed $3000 by a half brother who died at South River, N. Y.

Jimerson Woman To Enter Guilty Plea

Buffalo, April 3—(UP)—Lila Jimerson, young Seneca Indian woman, accused of plotting the death of Mrs. Clotilde Marchand, has decided to plead guilty to second degree murder. District Attorney Guy B. Moore announced today.

He planned to go immediately to the hospital where she lies seriously ill from consumption, to hear her withdraw a not guilty plea of first degree murder charge and plead to the lesser one.

She would face a term running from 20 years to life under a second degree murder plea.

WOMEN PROTEST.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 3—(UP)—Protesting "that the prosecution of Lila Jimerson at Buffalo for the murder of Artist Menri Marchand's wife is persecution of a helpless, ignorant, lonely Indian girl," the Knox County Democratic Women's Club today wired Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt urging he intercede.

THE STORMY PETREL—PETERKIN.

UP AND DOWN! Up and down! From the base of the wave to the billow's crown.
And midst the flashing and leathery foam
The Stormy Petrel finds a home;
A home, if such a place may be
For her who lives on the wide, wide sea.
On the craggy ice, in the frozen air
And only seekest her rocky lair
To warm her young and to teach them to spring
At once over the waves on their stormy wing."

Dr. Kinley Urges High Standard of Womanhood in Talk

Champaign, Ill., April 3.—(UP)—Dark nooks in soft drink parlors and dance halls with shaded illumination were listed among the "places to be avoided" category of University of Illinois cords today as a result of a speech by Dr. David Kinley, president of the institution, here last night.
Dr. Kinley's address was made at a meeting of leaders of various women's organizations. He urged women of the University to set up their own standards of conduct to maintain their self respect and to refuse acquaintances and social associations that do not conform to those standards. He urged the maintenance of a high standard of womanhood and requested leaders among University women to seek reforms along these lines.

Neimack and Boguslawski Appear Here Apr. 27

On April 27 at the Dixon Theatre the famous pianist, Moissaye Boguslawski, and the famous violinist, Ilya Neimack, appear in joint concert in the course sponsored by Dixon Music Association. Following is a story about these artists, following the article printed a week or so:
For six years after the talent of Neimack was discovered she spent the time studying under the guidance and instruction of Leon Samerint of Chicago. From there she went to New York where she studied for three years under Leopold Auer.
All this training required considerable money. The father, a physician and surgeon of reputation, found himself handicapped because of his affliction with deafness. But despite this, every cent which the family accumulated for later years went towards Ilya's education. Furthermore, Dr. Neimack insisted that Mrs. Neimack accompany her daughter throughout her studies despite the fact that he himself needed the care of Mrs. Neimack.

Ilya became early attached to Beethoven, Mozart, Bach and Brahms. The Neimack home was always the center of musical affairs and discussions and the best selections of the most famous authors became her daily "food" just as much as jazz is to the average youth of today.

Ilya is especially fond of Mendelssohn. His works seem to suit her mood and temperament best of all, she says. On one occasion she happened to mention her preference for this great composer to the late Maude Powell. It so occurred that shortly thereafter the great Powell was giving a concert which she was privileged to attend.

Maude Powell had put the Cole-ridge-Taylor concerto on her program, but recalling that Ilya loved Mendelssohn she changed her program with his compositions for her benefit. The program of that concert is still in Ilya's possession which she cherishes among her dearest treasures.

Miss Powell wrote on it: "The child played for me this morning (Dec. 15, 1913) and surprised me. She played the Mendelssohn concerto extraordinarily well for a mere youngster. She not only has undoubted talent, but is well trained. If she keeps on at this pace, she will have a future."

Boguslawski—the artist. The phrase is a unit. He could be nothing but an artist. Look at his hands. If he didn't play piano, then he's surely be an etcher—or perhaps a surgeon. Those hands must busy themselves with intricate interpretation of expression.

Small hands—how can they render the prodigious technical difficulties which the compositions of Liszt and Brahms cover? But they do! They're facile hands, pliable hands, with a truly enormous expansion of 10 1/2 inches each. No composition for the keyboard can ever disconnect these fleet fingers. Yet the most elfin delicacies of tonal poems—the tenderness of Mozart—the crashing chords of Liszt take feeling and expression from these hands. They're silk and steel. The hands of Boguslawski have travelled over a repertoire of some 2,500 pieces. And yet there are only the mechanism of the artist. It is when they are infused with the fire and soul of Boguslawski that they pour out astonishing and voluptuous music. Remember the concert April 27th.

Am. Legion Auxiliary Meeting Interesting

The American Legion Auxiliary, Dixon Unit No. 12, held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Legion hall. The attendance was very good. The ladies were glad to have with them again several of the members who had been absent quite some time through illness.

All committees gave reports on work being done and these were very interesting. The food sale held last week was a splendid success, a nice sum of money being raised for the treasury.

The Sunshine chairman reported sending flowers to the sick and a card of congratulation sent to the family of a World War veteran who received a little son in their home last week.
A box of jellies and preserves will be sent to the men at the Oak Forest Sanitarium. Five hundred lolly-pops are to be sent to the children at Normal for Easter. The ladies are also making picture scrap books to be sent at the same time.

At the next Auxiliary meeting, a program will be given and the social committee will serve refreshments.

Comrade's 97th Birthday Commemorated

(By Comrade Geo. L. Richardson)

About thirty of the W. R. Corps, daughters of Veterans of the Civil War and families, sponsored a very enjoyable meeting at the home of Comrade Isaac N. Fish of Oregon, Illinois, on April 2nd, 1930 commemorating his 97th birthday.

We claim Comrade Fish of the 34th Ill. Vol. Inf. to be the oldest veteran of the Civil War now living, who saw service from 1861 to 1865. There are now living of the 34th Illinois Infantry which left Dixon in 1861, only seventeen out of 885, who are left to tell their experiences in the Southland in those trying days of 1861 to 1865.

There are three of Company "F" of his company of 85, living, namely: Isaac N. Fish, Charles Stiel and George L. Richardson—who were mustered into the service in 1861.

A social time and fine lunch was partaken after which Comrade Brown offered prayer and the ladies auxiliary rendered a suitable musical selection.

The parting hand shake was a token of great respect of their guest of honor.

Tempting refreshments were served. Everyone present had a most enjoyable evening and all plan to attend the meeting next Wednesday.

Father Charles Maddox Spoke at St. Luke's

Father Charles Maddox of Tiskilwa, Ill., who is rector of St. Jude's church in that city, made a most interesting address at the St. Luke's church in Dixon last evening during the Lenten services. Rev. Maddox spoke on Christianity in general, and a life of experience. As one lives a Christian life, and experiences come and difficulties are met and conquered, with spiritual assistance, one's horizon widens, and a deep and most satisfying religious life is assured. Rev. Maddox's address was highly appreciated and enjoyed by all who heard him.

During his stay in Dixon, Father Maddox was a guest of Rev. and Mrs. Richard C. Talbot at St. Luke's rectory.

The committee of the American Legion Auxiliary who are in charge of the buying and placing of the flag pole and flag for the new Dixon High School gave their reports and they were accepted at the meeting of the American Legion in their hall yesterday afternoon. Work will be begun at once on the placing of the pole which with the new flag, will be a memorial to the Legion World War boys who gave their lives in the struggle for world supremacy. The flag and pole will be a beautiful memorial and when finished will cost in the neighborhood of three hundred dollars. Otto Witzleb & Son have the making of the pole. L. J. Kelly will do the cement work, and the lovely bronze plate for the pole will be secured through the W. E. Trein Jewelry store. Miss McCade Bride Of Stuart J. Plum

At high noon Wednesday, Miss Hazel McCade, niece of Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam of Ashton, was wed at the Putnam home to Stuart J. Plum of Polo, with the Rev. S. S. Plum, father of the bridegroom, officiating.

The couple was unattended. The bride wore poude blue chiffon with harmonizing accessories. After a wedding dinner at the Putnam home, with the hostess assisted by Mrs. Hugh Flatley of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Plum left for a short wedding trip. Until September they will be at home with the bridegroom's parents in Polo, after which they expect to take their own farm.

The bride has been telephone exchange operator at Ashton since completing her high school course three ago.

Many friends in Polo, Ashton and vicinity, extend best wishes.

TO STAGE SEVENTH ANNUAL FESTIVAL

A Fall Festival for Polo in the fall of 1930 is no longer problematical—members of the Federated Woman's Club definitely voted to stage the seventh annual festival. The decision to back the attraction was reached at a business meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the Presbyterian church in Polo.

HOW TO WRITE A MYSTERY STORY.

Nearly all of us have just enough of the caveman instinct in our makeups to delight in a good murder story, and quite a few of us probably have harbored a secret desire to some day write a detective yarn that would be rated among the best sellers.

Well, it's easy. All you have to do is follow the rules. Take this from Harry Leon Wilson, now vacationing at Carmel, Calif., who has written some pretty good detective stories in his time.

"Guess the weight of your reader's eyelids along about midnight, lay the setting of the murders (and there must be two or three) in England and your book is sure to be a success," says Mr. Wilson.

"It's no use being patriotic. A murder committed in America is always solved by the police or a daring cub reporter before the last evening edition, and where does your mystery come in?"

"Dispatch your victim in Sir or Lady Anyone's library or study. A house party of 18 or 20 guests, all with motives for killing the deceased, should be attendant to the murder. All characters must have unpronounceable names. Lady Mertyn Waddingham, Sylvester Machintosh Fish and 40 others of the same trend are always good.

"In the room adjacent to where the murder is committed bridge game or a round of scotch and soda must be in progress. Incidentally, English scotch and soda is never served with ice.

"There should be an open book on the lounge—the open pages suggestive of the victim's thought just before he, or she, was struck with the heavy, blunt instrument.

"Ladies implicated or draped with a motive must be of a Latin or French descent, should the writer decide to snuff out the life of his mystere with a sheath knife—found beside the body with strangely carved handle.

"It is useless to go into the possibilities of England as a murder setting. Who can imagine an interesting murder being committed in an American apartment where the only characters would be a dumb elevator boy and a Swede janitor?"

"Where better could the richly-clothed corpus delecti be sighted than in the Thames by a Bobby wandering the foggy quays?"

"Do not forget your disguises. Any Scotland Yard man can fool his own mother with a bit of lipstick and a false beard.

"Lead your Scotland Yarder into London's night clubs, a town house, or the darkest recesses of narrow lanes bordering the waterfront—but he must shake hands with fellow force members and give them a hearty 'cheerio' whenever they meet.

"One of your suspects must visit Monte Carlo, the Riviera or the Canadian Rockies—to supply gendarmes or Mounties.

"Shake well, keep in mind that a sleeping potion, to be sold at $2, must deaden the eyelids, and you have your book."

Of course, Mr. Wilson is somewhat facetious—but, after all, there's a lot of truth in what he says. The supply of available murder story plots is running pretty low and some of the stories we have read recently smack more of variation than of originality.

But often we find enjoyment in an old situation that is dressed up in new clothes. And if it provides a good story, who doesn't?

THE NAVAL HOLIDAY.

The suggestion for a six-months holiday in the naval disarmament conference may turn out to be a life-saver for the proponents of naval reduction and world peace.

It is disappointing, of course, when we recall the high hopes that we had when the conference opened. But it is becoming apparent that our hopes were unjustifiably exalted. We expected more than we had any right to expect.

There have been plenty of chances for the conference to end in something very like a row, with all kinds of ill-feeling engendered on all sides. The six-months holiday might avert those chances. It might pave the way for real naval reduction later.

To be sure, it isn't nearly as good as what we expected. But it's perhaps the best way out of a very difficult situation.

"It is the things that are of no use that really make up one's life," says Stanley Baldwin. Now we are able to see Congress in a better light.

A business magazine says "prosperity will rise with the sap." The same sap who lost all his money last fall in the stock market smashup?

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

To gay Parse the Tinymites went. The taxi driver kindly spent a bit of time just driving round to give them all a treat. They'd gaze to left and then to right and everywhere saw quite a sight. Fine buildings loomed up constantly on avenue and street.

Far in the distance Clowny saw a pretty sight and, filled with awe, he shouted, "What is that tall thing that reaches toward the sky. I know I've seen it in a book. The other Tinymites took a look. Said Scouty "Gee, it's monstrous. I just hope we ride right by."

The Travel Man then said, "Ask me about most anything you see. That is the Eiffel Tower and we will visit it, you bet! It is as famous as can be. It's something you will want to see, and when we go there we will climb as high as we can get."

"Right now, however, I would say that we locate some nice cafe. We'll find one with small tables that stand right out by the street. And there we'll have a bit of lunch. I think that is a dandy hunch. Start thinking now, you Tinymites, what you would like to eat."

The taxi driver then said, "Say, I'm sure than I can show the way to just the place you're looking for. The food is very fine." "Hurray!" cried Clowny. "That is great. Please hurry, 'cause it's hard to wait. It seems to me that right outside's a dandy place to dine."

The place was not so very far. The driver cried, "Well, here we are. This is the Cafe de la Paix. And there's a table, too!" The bunch jumped out and sat right down. "Now we will do things up real brown," exclaimed the fine old Travel Man. "Ah! This is something new!"

Calvary was the end of all roads for Jesus. It is the end of all roads for men.

It is the end of the road for the sinner. It is the end of the road for the saint. It is the end of the road for the struggling Christian.

Note especially how Calvary is the end of the road for the heart's affections.

Had there been no Calvary, assuredly we would have loved Jesus. We would have loved Him for His winsomeness. We would have loved Him for His tenderness. We would have loved Him for His helpfulness. But we would not have loved Him enough—not truly enough, not devotedly enough. He would have been at the most merely one among many.

But on Calvary, Jesus breaks our hearts, that He may make them over, new, and bind them to Him eternally. Here is the end of the road for love.

It is so always. Many things may help to create love. Sacrifice alone will keep love going and growing. Apply this if you will to your homes. Thousands of tragic divorces bring their havoc because men and women think they can keep love by selfishness. No, it can't be done. You can build love strongly only by sacrifice. Infatuation may be fed by capricious flirtings. Desire may be increased by favors withdrawn. But love grows by sacrifice.

Here is the utter sacrifice, commanding the highest love. The end of the road for the heart's affections is Jesus hanging on Calvary.

FIRST PONY EXPRESS

On April 3, 1860, the first pony express riders left Sacramento, Cal., for St. Louis, Mo., to establish a fast mail service between the Pacific coast and the middle west. The service was inaugurated in an effort to reduce the 22 days time it took the transcontinental lines to carry mails from the east to the far west by way of the Panama canal.

The animals used on the "express" were not ponies but fleet horses. They were stationed at "stages" from 10 to 15 miles apart and each rider rode three animals successfully, covering about 75 miles before he passed the pouch to his successor. Eventually there were 80 riders and between 400 and 500 horses.

The fastest trip was made for the delivery of President Lincoln's inaugural address the distance of 1400 miles being covered in 7 days and 17 hours.

Just 16 months after it was started, the pony express was supplanted by a telegraph line. But despite its brief existence, the service has won a name for itself in American history because it maintained its schedule in all kinds of weather and in face of Indian hostilities.

WANT $60,000 RANSOM.

Hankow, April 2.—(AP)—Miss Nina E. Gemmill, a missionary worker formerly of Tacoma, Wash., and Girard, Kas., and the Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Porteus, British missionaries, all of whom were captured last Thursday when bandits raided the city of Yuan-chow, are being held for ransoms of $20,000 each.

Where the abducted missionaries are being held is not known here. Three other missionary workers who escaped from Yuanchow are believed to be hiding in East Changsha, Hunan Province.

MURDERER IN CUSTODY

Springfield, Ill., Apr. 2.—(AP)—Extradition papers for Steven Dixon, alias Arthur Burt Seay, who is wanted in Chicago for the murder of Martin I. French on January 18, 1929 were signed by Governor Louis L. Emmerson here today. Dixon is in custody at Jackson, Mississippi.

The why of a clear skin

A clear, smooth, lovely skin speaks of rich, red blood within. It is Nature's outward reflection of internal healthfulness.

Men and women, both, justly covet admiration and all may expect such satisfaction to its fullest extent if they are the possessors of a clear, unblemished skin.

If you are unfortunate in this respect you owe it to yourself and friends to remove the cause. Nature will then provide the complexion which is so much desired.

More important still, strong healthy blood nourishes the body and fights against infection and disease.

How S.S.S.
BUILDS
HEALTH

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been helping people regain and retain their strength and charm. It promotes healthy body building. It increases the number of red-blood-cells. All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

Daily Health Talk

KEEPING THE MOUTH HEALTHY
By Dr. Richard Clay Leonard,
Baltimore, Maryland.

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. Headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

Mouth hygiene means the care that keeps the mouth—with special references to the teeth—in good health. This is accomplished by practicing certain rules of cleanliness, by special attention to the diet, and by the early repair of defects or decay found in the teeth.

To have healthy teeth you must have a healthy start. You have to go back to the diet and health of the mother to insure healthy teeth for the child. In order that it may help in the formation of strong, healthy teeth, the diet of the mother must be rich in lime salts, that is, in tooth or bone forming minerals. The foods that are especially rich in such substances include milk, butter, cheese and other dairy products, oranges and other fruits, tomatoes and green vegetables. Such foods are necessary not only for forming good teeth, but for keeping them in good condition all through life.

Teeth are not always perfectly formed. Often there are slight defects in the structure of a tooth when it comes through the gum. These defects—tiny cracks or crevices in the enamel—offer an easy place for decay-causing germs to start their work. As soon as these tiny imperfections are discovered they should be remedied. A child of three or four years can have such defects repaired with little or no trouble, no pain and little expense. Such corrective work will insure the keeping of the first or "baby" teeth until the regular time for "shedding" them. It is of the utmost importance that these baby teeth be looked after with as much care as is given to the second or "permanent" teeth. A young child's mouth should be carefully examined twice a year by a competent dentist.

Kohler Faction Won

Milwaukee, Wis., April 2.—(UP)—"Regular" faction of the Republican party, headed by Gov. Walter Kohler, apparently had won a victory over the La Follette Progressives today when unofficial and incomplete returns indicated the election of Chester A. Fowler as Chief Justice in yesterday's election.

Fowler was an appointee of Kohler, who faces ouster trial soon, and his chief opponent was John Reynolds, Attorney General and Progressive. The lead has shifted twice since ballot counting started but late returns increased Fowler's lead. The Reynolds followers, however, refused to concede. They likewise denied that Fowler's victory was a big factor in the campaign or an indication of how the fall elections will turn out.

Raymond J. Cannon, disbarred Milwaukee attorney, the third candidate, polled a heavy vote in his home districts. Reynolds led in Green Bay, his home, and in Madison, the capital.

REMEMBERED EMPLOYEES

White Plains, N. Y., April 2.—(UP)—Fifteen employees of the late Edward F. Albee, vaudeville and theater magnate, received bequests ranging from $5,000 to $1,000 from his estate, estimated at approximately $3,000,000, according to the terms of his will. The bulk of the estate was left to relatives. Three theatrical organizations and a church in Larchmont, N. Y., also shared in the bequests.

YOUTHFULNESS and BEAUTY

are dependent upon a strong body—
firm flesh—
a clear skin

NOTHING is more beautiful, more inspiring, more glorious than the supreme manifestation of Nature in the human body. Those sparkling eyes, that clear skin, that firm flesh, and that vigor of action denoting vitality, bespeak loveliness and internal healthfulness.

And so, is it not our birthright to be masters over our own bodies? To be sure not much is said openly about personal handicaps—skin blemishes—sallow complexion—poor health—but secretly they influence many important affairs.

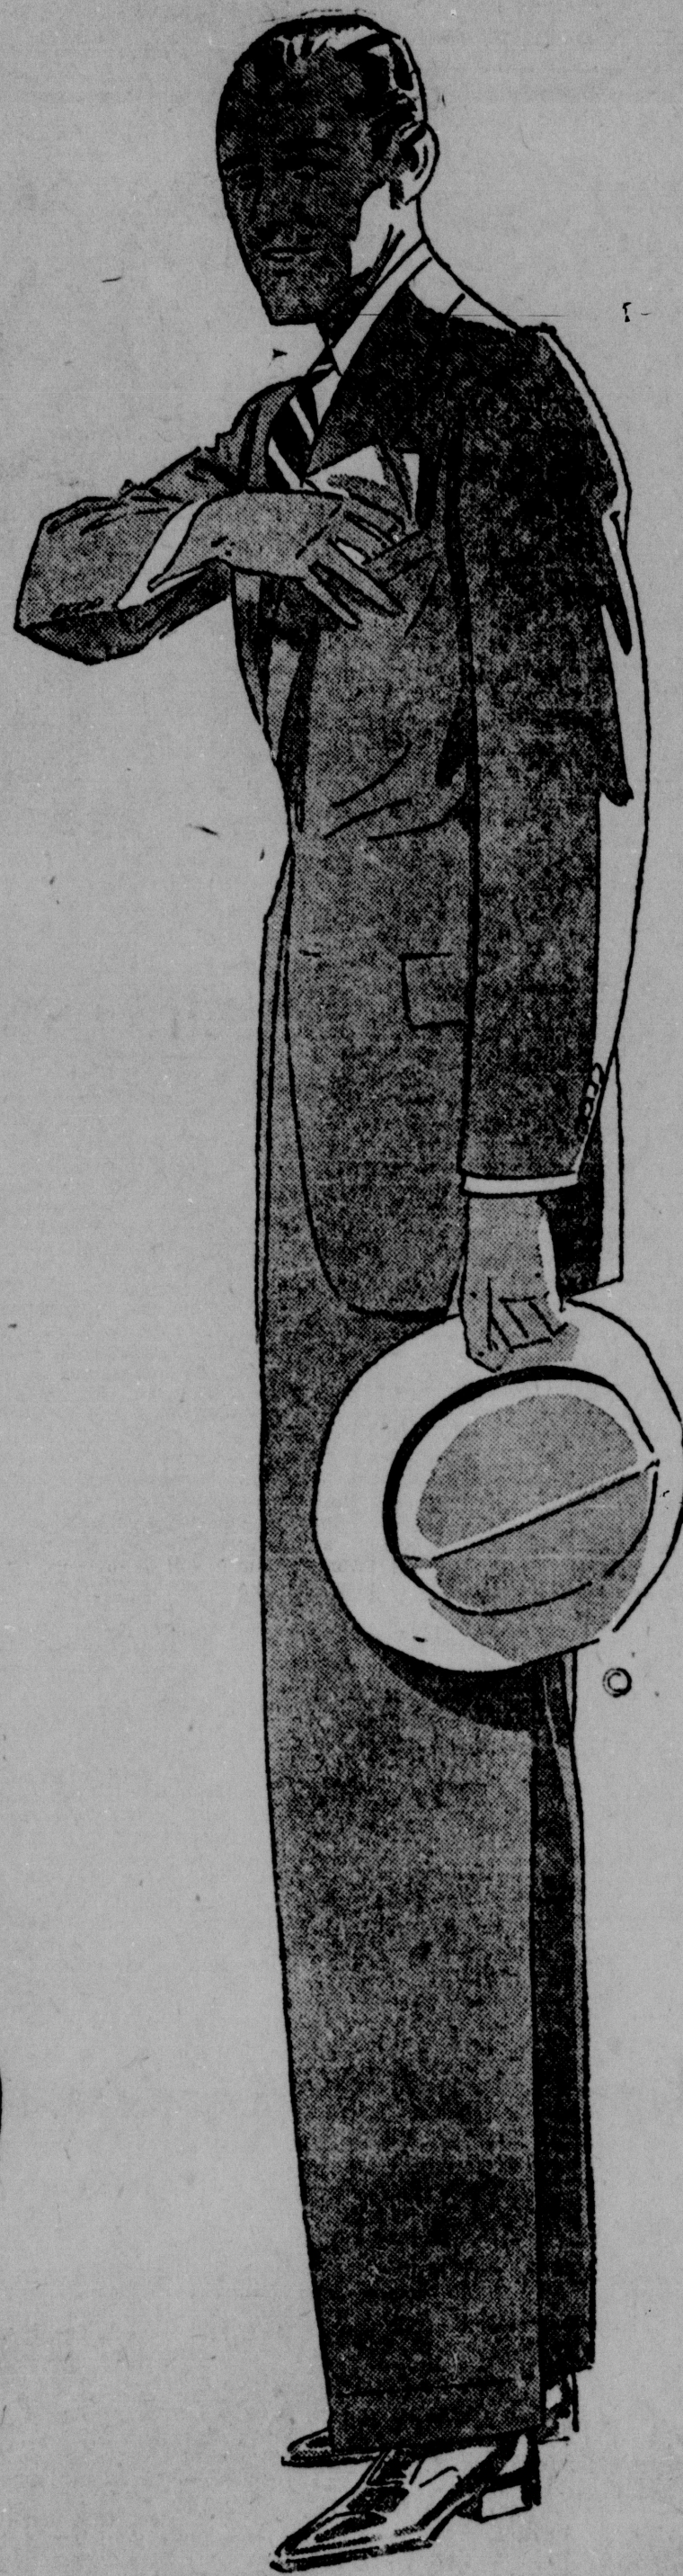

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of skin blemishes, lack of appetite, flabby flesh and loss of energy as an indication that the body's power of resistance is low—that there is a deficiency of red-blood-cells.

This is why so many thousands, seeking youthfulness and beauty, have taken a course of S.S.S. It helps Nature restore the blood to its normal state. Without plenty of rich, red-blood-cells there would be no strong, sturdy, powerful men or beautiful, healthy women.

THE GREAT
BLOOD TONIC
SINCE 1826

Loss of strength, flabby flesh and skin eruptions are but a few of the symptoms of a deeper and more dangerous trouble—a lack of the normal count of red-cells in the blood.

EUCCHARISTIC MEET PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Delegates from All Over World Will Gather in Ancient Carthage

BY THOMAS B. MORGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Vatican City—(UP)—The complete program of the thirtieth world's eucharistic congress of the Roman Catholic church in Carthage, North Africa, has been announced here.
Delegations will be present from all over the world.

The papal legate nominated by the Pope is scheduled to arrive May 7 and make his solemn entry into the ancient capital. He will be met by the prefects and apostolic delegates of Africa, headed by the primate and escorted to the ancient basilica, where the first big religious function of the congress will take place. During the ceremony, the papal bull will be read nominating the legate as Pope Pius' own representative during the proceedings.

On May 8, the papal legate will celebrate mass in the stadium of Belvedere and will administer communion to the young. On the same day high pontifical mass will be celebrated in the basilica, built in 1884 by the late Cardinal Lavigne.
In the crypt of the basilica are cherished the ashes of St. Louis, king of France.

The same day, a giant assembly will be held in the ancient amphitheater, where the service of "Palms" will take place to commemorate the martyrs who were sacrificed on North African shores, among whom were St. Felix and St. Perpetua. Particular interest will be manifested in the general assemblage on Mount Byrsa, which will be followed by the adoration of the eucharist in a nocturnal service in the metropolitan church in Tunis. This will reach to midnight and will be followed by a mass when communion will be administered to the faithful.

On May 9, mass will be sung on the ruins of the ancient basilica and this will be followed by another grand assemblage in the amphitheater, which will be addressed by Mons. Joseph Tissier, bishop of Chalons. On May 10, pontifical mass will be celebrated in the amphitheater.

The last day, May 11, will be the greatest function of all, when the papal legate will celebrate high pontifical mass on the ruins of the basilica of St. Cyprianus, where St.
Monaca passed the night in prayer and tears when St. Augustine embarked for Italy. This mass will be followed by the huge eucharistic procession in which the cardinal-legate will carry aloft the host for the adoration of the multitudes.

Pope Pius XI has been informed fully of all the preparations. He has always taken a deep interest in the world's eucharistic congress, where-ever it has been held. He followed with intense attention, the proceedings of the congress at Chicago, four years ago, and later the one in Sydney, Australia, two years ago, at which Cardinal Cerretti, was papal legate.

TAMPA VISITOR ENJOYS LATIN QUARTER SIGHTS

Bridge and Dog Races With Cocktails Furnish Diversion

Tampa, Fla.—(UP)—No gambling except bridge at as much as one dollar a point and bets at the dog races is evident in Tampa this season but stiff cocktails appear to be the common refreshment for a large portion of the winter visitors. Some golf at $10 a hole and $100 on the side is not unusual, however.

Tampa claims parity with New Orleans in the picturesque attractiveness of its Latin quarter, known as Ybor City. Stepping from block to block one sees a composite picture of Cuba, Spain, Italy and the West Indies.

Spanish speech, custom and costumes, food and drink and Spanish games pervade the quarter. Spanish night clubs with American night clubs with all sort of prices, food and entertainment hold the visitors until early morning.

There's swimming at the Davis Island Swimming pool, or if you're an average visitor, you'll make several trips aboard a Goodyear blimp or the 101 foot airplane "Northern Star" which carries more than 20 passengers on any voyage.

The Tom Thumb golf courses attract an increasing number of golfers.

But Tampa has its full share of the more quiet and less spectacular visitors who jam the residential hotels and apartment houses. Chief among these is the historic Tampa Bay hotel, whose long balconies are filled with seats reserved by winter visitors year after year.

Business men claim Tampa's 1930 season is slightly better than last year and the best since the boom.

Seek Direct Appeal

Washington, April 1.—(AP)—To expedite final action on the conviction of Albert B. Falls, former Secretary of the Interior, on the charge of having accepted a bribe of 100,000 from Edward L. Doheny in making oil leases, the government today petitioned the Supreme Court to take jurisdiction of the case without awaiting action by the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, where Falls now has an appeal pending.

Should the Supreme Court agree to pass on the case without waiting for the District Court of Appeals, attorneys estimated approximately one year would be saved in getting action by the highest court.

Oberammergau Villagers Prepare for Passion Play

OLD ODD FELLOW HONORED.

Iowa City, April 2—(AP)—Commemorating his 75 years membership in the order, the Odd Fellows lodge last night honored M. A. Seydel, 97-year-old Iowa City resident whose craftsmanship has gone into building of two homes for Iowa's state government.

Said to be the oldest surviving member of I. O. O. F., Seydel was presented with an honorable veteran's jewel symbolizing his three-quarters of a century of membership. It is the first such presentation to an Iowan and the fourth award of its kind in the history of the organization.

Dry Law Defeated

Madison, Wis., April 2—(UP)—A proposal that Madison take part in prohibition enforcement was buried in defeat and the author of the idea was voted out of his job as Alderman, returns from yesterday's election showed today.

The municipal dry law sponsored by Alderman George Gill was voted down 8,103 to 5,738. Gill lost out in his ward's aldermanic race to John L. Bourke by almost two to one.

Only four out of the city's 22 precincts gave majorities in favor of the ordinance which was designed to replace locally the state dry prohibition enforcement law which the legislature repealed last year.

Killer Of Mate In Norway Gets Bonus

OSLO—(UP)—Maren Jensen, 30, had a husband and two children. The husband started beating Maren on their wedding day and kept it up with great regularity. He played a sort of game with Maren in which he hid the children and made her believe he had killed them or thrown them in the river. He put their clothes on the bank of a stream and dipped his hands in chicken's blood.

One day the husband came home drunker and more abusive than usual. This turned out to be the last day he ever came home at all. Maren finished him with two strokes of an axe. "I have killed my husband," she told a neighbor. "I would rather spend the rest of my life in prison than in this hell."

Maren was given a trial by jury in the town of Skien. Many witnesses testified that she had done her best to preserve her home. Maren was acquitted, amid great cheering, and a subscription was started for the widow and her children.

King Haakon of Norway gave the first 500 kroner.

DEPUTY INDICTED

Richmond, Ky., April 2—(AP)—Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Lane was indicted for murder by the Jackson county grand jury yesterday as a result of the shooting of Ammon Williams in a prohibition raid Sunday. Announcement of the indictment was made here today after Lane had been taken to McKee to face the charges.

BOTH MAN AND SON BENEFITED BY NEW KONJOLA

"This New Medicine Did All That Was Claimed For It," Says Happy Man.

MR. HERMAN SCHLETTERT.

"Well, Konjola did all that was claimed for it in my case," said Mr. Herman Schlettert, 620 South Twentieth St., Quincy, Ill. In addition to that, it greatly benefited my eight-year-old son. I suffered dreadfully from stomach trouble and constipation. Even though I watched my diet carefully, after every meal my stomach bloated terribly, causing distress and pain. My nerves were on edge, and a result of constipation I suffered with severe headaches.

"Nothing I tried did any good until I put this remarkable Konjola to the test. Before I had finished the first bottle I was satisfied that I had chosen the right medicine. Within a month I felt better in every way than for years. I started gaining my son Konjola and he is gaining in weight and strength; is full of energy, and always hungry. Konjola has my most sincere endorsement."

Thus Konjola works, quickly yet thoroughly. One does not have to wait long for results when Konjola is given a chance, but for complete results, it is recommended that from six to eight bottles be taken.

Konjola is sold in Dixon, Ill., at FORD HOPKINS' DRUG STORE, at 123 W. First St., and by the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Los Angeles—Manager Joe McCarthy's regulars may be slow in reaching form, but the Chicago Cubs reserve force appears to be ready for the championship season.
In yesterday's 10 to 2 victory over Los Angeles, only Woody English, shortstop, of the regular infield, was in the lineup. Blair was at third for Bell, Beck worked for Hornsby at second, while Tolson played first for Charlie Grimm, and all performed well. Hornsby had heel still bothers him, Grimm is suffering with lumbago and Bell's throwing arm is too lame for duty.

At Fort Worth, Tex.—Donie Bush, new pilot of the ambitious Chicago White Sox, has lost none of his power of persuasive oratory.
After his men had been held to three hits in eight innings by Dick Whitworth of the Ft. Worth Cats, Bush cut loose on them, and the result was six hits and eight runs, for a 9 to 3 victory. The uprising was led by none other than C. Arthur Shires, who had been elevated to number five in the batting order as reward for his earnest attention to business.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—Goose Goslin with the others Senators will leave tonight for Birmingham, Alabama, for a short series with the Barons. They will return on Sunday, however, for a five game series with the Boston Braves.
In spite of rain yesterday, things were sunny for the Senators as Goslin signed for $10,000 and a bonus which made it possible for him to earn $10,000, which he was paid last year.

Memphis, Tenn.—Still after more base hits, Manager Bill Killefer of the St. Louis Browns planned several changes in his batting order for today's game with the Memphis Chicks of the Southern League.
Killefer planned to place "Red" Kress fourth, move Schulte down to fifth, and use Melillo sixth instead of second, in the batting order. O'Rourke or Hale would take Melillo's place.
Al Crowder is scheduled to start the game.

Bradenton, Fla.—The St. Louis Cardinals may or may not have found something more than a training camp here. It will, of course, take time to tell whether Bert Lynch, a local boy, can consistently fool batters like he did the Rochester Red Wings yesterday.
In yesterday's game Lynch allowed only two hits and no runs in the final three chapters.

Philadelphia—The Phillies neared home today, their southern training season at an end. When they broke camp yesterday all hands expressed eagerness to get back to the home lot where lusty hitters crash many a hit against the short right field wall. The clouting circus, which hasn't clouted thus far, predicted a quick recovery from a batting slump soon after getting back to Baker Bowl.

Charlotte, N. C.—A game today and one at Richmond tomorrow wind up the Athletics' training trip, and the champions are due in Philadelphia Saturday to begin the annual city series with the Phillies. Most of the rookies will be under fire in that series and Manager Mack will then begin to dispose of those not yet ready for big league ball.

PILES GO QUICK

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds, because it relieves this congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has given quick, safe and lasting relief to thousands of Pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. Rowland's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.—Adv.

Macon, Ga.—The weather is not the only thing that is causing trouble for the Brooklyn Robins. It helped them lose a game to Detroit yesterday when rain interrupted a pitching duel between Adolpo Luque and Vic Sorrell of Detroit but that was just one difficulty. Two more were a cold that kept Hank Deberry out of uniform and a strained back that still is causing trouble for Bressler.

Waco, Tex.—Babe Ruth and mules are friends no longer. The leader of the New York Yankee sluggers is suffering from a rather painful injury to a finger because he paid more attention to the antics of a mule in the field at Austin Tuesday than to where the ball was traveling. "I'm off mules," Babe announced. "This is the first hurt finger I ever had in the big league. And if that mule hadn't started doing a bronco act on the field I would have caught the ball instead of ramming my finger."

New Orleans—Manager John McGraw has just about decided on the lineup the New York Giants will use in their opening game of the regular season with the pitching berth still to be filled.

McGraw said he would send his team against the Braves with Johnny Mostil, center field, leading the batters, followed by Leach or Reese, left field; Lindstrom, third base; Terry, first base; Ott, right field; Jackson, shortstop; Marshall, second base; Hogan or O'Farrell, catcher.

Houston, Texas—Old man misfortune, who has tagged just about everybody on the Pittsburgh Pirate training squad, seems determined to make a complete job of it. Even the umpire has fallen victim. Ted McGraw, new National League official traveling with the Bucs, has the gripe. Of the team with which Jewel Ens hopes to ride to a pennant this year, only Paul Waner, Suhr and Comoroskey are able to be at their posts—and Comoroskey has a bruised foot. The Pirates are here for a four-game series.

Atlanta, Ga.—Third base no longer worries Dan Howley, manager of the Cincinnati Reds. His selection for the position has not been made but he believes any one of his candidates—Joe Stripp, Tony Cucinello and Chuck Dessen, will perform there satisfactorily. With the team's departure for today's game at Birmingham, it became known Frank Behle, business manager the past nine years, will resign upon reaching Cincinnati. "I have had enough traveling and prefer to take a rest," he said.

New Orleans—One more slice with the pruning knife and the Indians' pitching staff will be down to its season's quota of nine members. With the release of Belve Bean and Leslie Barnhart to New Orleans, the staff was cut to ten and four of them—Shaute, Glatto, Harder and Jablonowski—will struggle for three jobs. Shaute, dean of the staff, was considered a certainty a few weeks ago, but his work has been unimpressive and he'll have to compete with the youngsters.

Atlanta, Ga.—The Detroit Tigers are here for a three game series with the Atlanta Club of the Southern Association. Manager Stanley Harris still is hoping his charges will come out of their exhibition season batting slump.

Macon, Ga.—Out in the Braves' big center pasture, where speed helps, Earl Clark is well equipped. In a series of races yesterday he showed his heels to the whole squad. Lefty Ed Brandt traveled the fastest among the pitchers, "Rip" Collins among the catchers, and Jack

Sets New A. B. C. Record

Larry Shotwell, 25-year-old blond office clerk of Covington, Ky., today sets atop the bowling world as the holder of a new American Bowling Congress record in the individual event. Shotwell recently scored a three-game series of 774 pins, shattering the previous tourney record of 749 made in 1924 by Harry Smyers of Pittsburgh. Shotwell's games were 237, 270 and 267.

Kahn, recruit, among the infielders.

Louisville, Ky.—The Red Sox hope to put into use in today's game with the Colonels some of the dozens of bats they got from the factory here yesterday.

Cold and mud made cancellation of yesterday's contest necessary.

Britisher Abandons Attempt For Time

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 3—(UP)—The elaborate camp which Kaye Don had established here preparatory to his attempting to break the automobile speed record has literally folded up, leaving Daytona Beach a comparatively quiet place today.

Further activities have been postponed and all hope that Don would try for the record held by his countryman, Sir Henry Segrave, within the next few days was dissipated further by an official announcement by W. C. Edenburn, chief steward of the trials and representative of the American Automobile Association.

Edenburn's statement said the association had granted an indefinite extension of time for the trials but added that it was not considered probable that the beach would be in shape for "several days." The statement further emphasized that no pressure had been brought on Don at any time to force him to run under unfavorable conditions.

JONES TO LEAD AMERICANS FOR BRITISH PLAY

American Hopeful They Can Take Every One Of British Titles

BY DIXON STEWART

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, April 3—(UP)—Bobby Jones' spectacular victory at Augusta closed the winter golf season and golfdom is now looking forward to its next important event—an invasion of Great Britain in an attempt to make a clean sweep of English titles.

The invasion starts April 22 with the sailing of a women's team headed by Glenna Collett. Bobby Jones and his Walker Cup team will follow, April 30, and by the end of May most of America's best amateurs and professionals will be competing abroad.

Jones' performance at Augusta showed that he is at the top of his game and gave rise to the hopes of the United States making a clean sweep in men's events.

Bobby hopes to lead his team to victory in the Walker Cup matches, at Sandwich May 15 and 16, and is pointing especially to the British amateur—the only major tournament he has failed to win.

Sweetser Withdraws

Despite the withdrawal of Jess Sweetser, the only American who ever has won the British amateur tourney, the United States-Walker Cup team is one of the best in years. Sweetser's place will be filled by Roland MacKenzie and the United States will be favored to maintain its unbroken record of Walker Cup triumphs.

Practically all of the Walker Cup players and a number of free-lance competitors will represent America in the British amateur tourney at St. Andrews, beginning May 26.

Most of the amateurs will remain in England for the British Open, which starts June 16 at Hoy Lake. Reinforced by numerous professionals they will make a strong bid to retain the title which has been won by Americans nine times in the past 10 years.

Great Britain concedes the invaders a strong chance to win all of the men's events but the first international test—the meeting of the British and United States women's teams at Sunningdale, May 1 is a toss-up. The English team is highly regarded but will be forced to play excellent golf to defeat Miss Collett's aggregation which includes such stars as Maryreen Orcutt, Virginia Van Wie, Helen Hicks and others who have shown well in winter competition.

FEW AMERICAN PLAYS SHOWING IN LONDON NOW

U. S. Players in Leading Roles of Only Two
Current Successes

London.—(UP)—Compared with a year ago at this time when crime plays were all the rage, and nearly every third theater in London was showing an American production, American actors, actresses and plays here are now in the doldrums of inactivity.

There is at this time only one strictly American play showing in any of the 44 legitimate theaters in London and its suburbs, and only one play that might have some claim to American origin. "Healthy, Wealthy and Wise," which has just opened at the Nem Theater, starring the American actress Mary Newcomb, is the work of two American residents of London, Eleanor Chilton and Herbert Agar, and deals with high life in New York.

"Silver Wings" at the new Dominion Theater is a musicalized version of the American play "Broken Wings," but the resemblance of the musical comedy to the original play is very slight.

American actors and actresses are faring but little better. Aside from Miss Newcomb there are but four other Americans in leading parts.

Tallulah Bankhead is starring at the Garrick in "The Lady of the Camellias." Ada May has a good part in the new Cochran 1930 Revue which opened at Manchester and which will come to the West End in a few days.

At the Dominion theater, in "Silver Wings," Americans Emma Haig and Art Fowler are among the best laugh producers in the show.

It is believed matters from the American standpoint will be improved later in the season, but meanwhile there seems to be some point to Ronald Jeans' "Glossary of Theatrical Terms," which includes the definitions:

"American Invasion — American plays and players in London."
"Free Trade in Art.—English plays and players in New York."

U. S. HIGHWAY BUILDERS PLAN MEXICAN VISIT

More Than 125 Engineers to Attend Exhibit April 20-27

Washington.—(UP)—More than 125 highway engineers and road building executives from the United States will attend the third highway congress of the Mexican national highway commission at Mexico City, April 20-27, this year, according to information received at the headquarters of the American Road Builders' Association here.

Many American manufacturers will send machinery and pictorial exhibits for the exposition which will be held in the great national stadium of Mexico and plans for moving exhibit material to the Mexican capital are already underway.

Major General Frederic A. Reimer, president of the American Road Builders' Association and Charles M. Upham, engineer director of the association will be joined by the association's executive committee in forming a party to leave Washington, April 15th in special cars, direct to Mexico City. Chicago, St. Louis and other cities along the route will contribute members of the delegation which will proceed by way of San Antonio and Laredo, Texas and Monterey, Mexico.

According to present plans the delegation upon arriving at its destination will be received by Mexico's president, Ortiz Rubio and his cabinet. The program of entertainment includes a rodeo and other open air events and side trips to many points of historical interest in the vicinity of the capital.

The congress expects to form a permanent committee to coordinate the road building activities of the Mexican states with the Federal road building program.

Here's how the people have judged this question of

VALUE

IN the tire business, as in any other, production has a direct relation to costs.

It happens that Goodyear builds millions more tires than any other manufacturer, which ought to mean something to the man who buys tires.

We think it does: "More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!"

We think this single towering fact — not to be overridden by any sales argument, however ingenious—says all that needs be said of Goodyear quality, Goodyear service, Goodyear price.

The next time you need a tire, and seek the most you can get for your money, remember how the people have judged this question of value.

The simplest and safest advice, is for you to do what an overwhelming percentage of your fellow-motorists are doing — go straight to the nearest Goodyear dealer!

OZARK RIVERS WILL PRODUCE LIGHT, WEALTH

Big Power Projects Start- ed On Water Courses of Beautiful Area

BY W. R. DRAPER

(United Press Correspondent)
Joplin, Mo. —(UP) From fiddles to phonographs, fueds to farming, mule back to filver—the Ozarks have stepped along abreast of the times. Natives now know what's in the newspapers and on the screen. Good roads and making the hill country into a summer playground have changed it all.

The thousands of miles of spring fed streams that twist through narrow gorges at the base of cliffs are soon to be harnessed and made to produce light and magic wealth.

While these Ozarks people have always worked hard for their small comforts and pleasures, the era of hydro-electricity holds a future for the weekly pay check and its assurance of plenty of gas for the family motor car, near-silk hose for the girls, and plenty of store clothes for the cross roads dandies.

The streams are said to be capable of producing 600,000 horse power by construction of numerous dams.

Licenses have been granted covering erection of 500,000 horsepower plants and work of developing more than 300,000 horsepower is now well under way.

A happy, lazy land will soon be teeming with industry.

"Industrially these developments just ahead for the Ozarks can be compared to the Carolinas," said Dr. H. A. Buehler, chief of the Missouri state bureau of mines and geology, whose efforts to bring before the utility companies the wealth of undeveloped water power in the Ozark country is now bearing fruit.

"The development of the south was due to hydro-electric projects taking form, and the same thing is now true of the Ozarks. These developments now under way portend a great advancement for the hill country."

Actual building of dams across Ozark rivers is now in progress at Gagnell on the Osage, Table Rock on the White and Lebanon on the Nangua.

The Gagnell-Osage project will cost $30,000,000 when completed and will create a lake covering 86 square miles. The dam will be 95 feet high and 1,000 feet long. About 125,000 horse power will be developed. This power already has been sold to the lead mines of south-east Missouri.

At Table Rock on the White River, a dam 195 feet high and 2,000 feet long costing $16,000,000 is to be started, and work now is in progress on the dam site. This lake will be 125 miles long and will cover 75,000 acres of land. The dam itself will generate 225,000 horse power. Most of this electricity will be sold to textile plants, silk mills, smelter and numerous small factories, all of which are under contract to move into the White River district simultaneously with completion of the Table Rock Lake.

Both the Osage and Table Rock Lake will play important parts as reservoirs.

Near Lebanon on the Nangua River a large force of men are boring a tunnel 1,000 feet long under a mountain and building a dam 600 feet long and 20 feet high to create a lake covering 1,000 acres to a depth of 20 feet. This project will cost $10,000,000 and will generate about 75,000 horse power. The electricity already has been sold to about 10 Missouri towns.

On Current River, a public utility has obtained a permit to construct two dams generating 60,000 horse power. On the Casconade River in central Missouri, Central Missouri Power Company has preliminary permits to construct three dams. Preliminary surveys have been finished for a $10,000,000 waterpower project near Arlington on the Piney River, and another project on Black River near Leeper is contemplated.

SOCIETY NEWS

THE TREE

I LOVE thee when thy swelling buds appear.
And one by one their tender leaves unfold.
As if they knew that warmer suns were near.
Nor longer sought to hide from winter's cold;
And when with darker growth thy leaves are seen
To veil from view the early robin's nest,
I love to lie beneath thy waving screen.

With limbs by summer's heat and toil oppressed,
And when the autumn winds have stripped thee bare
And around thee lies the smooth untrodden snow,
When naught is thine that made thee once so fair,
I love to watch thy shadowy form below.
And through thy leafless arms to look above
On stars that brighter beam when most we need their love.

Well Known Couple Celebrate Anniversary

Thirty years and more ago there lived in Sterling a young woman, well known in Dixon and Sterling, Miss Kate Thornhill. On February 28, 1900, she was married to Frank Purcell of Harmon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shumaker, 406 East Third Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Purcell with their family and friends celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary at their home on a farm near Amidon, S. D., according to a paper from that town. It was a surprise party but quite a program was had.

Following a sumptuous wedding dinner, prepared by neighbors, there was a wedding march. A woman neighbor gave a reading describing the bride and her life when she first came to the community. Songs were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Purcell's children, and special solos and duets by other young people. A purse of money was presented to the honorees of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Purcell were among the first homesteaders of government land in their township, White-lake, and have made their home on it for nearly 30 years, rearing their four children to maturity there. Mr. Purcell is a son of Mrs. Georgia Purcell of 507 East Third street, Sterling.

Few Girls Want Careers In Home

New Orleans—(UP)—The old southern tradition that girls should be homebodies with no other interests to speak of, was scorned by 1,000 high school girls here.

Only eight of the student body of the Sophie B. Wright girl's high school expressed a preference to be housewives after graduation.

Sixty-five vocations, most of them far removed from traditional fields to which women were once confined, were listed. Twelve of the girls wanted to be writers, and only six wanted to go on the stage.

To emulate Ruth Elder was the ambition of 13 of the girls, while 58 wanted to enter business. This number was exceeded by 168 who wanted to be teachers.

Some wanted to be detectives, while one listed the vocation of a veterinarian as her ambition. Sixty of the girls planned to be nurses, and nearly a score said they would study law.

WOMEN TIME HOUSEWORK FOR INCREASED EFFICIENCY—

Berkeley, Cal.—(AP)—Use of time schedules by the housewife is gaining, Miss Harriet G. Eddy states in her report of home demonstration work of the University of California agricultural extension service.

Several hundred women are keeping time schedules in doing their housework with a definite period set aside for rest during midday. Cooking breakfast, cleaning the house, preparing lunch, rest and recreation, preparing dinner, cleaning the dishes and odd details all are done by the clock.

"The time schedule shows the home maker where she is working to advantage and where she is wasting her time and energy," according to Miss Eddy.

Giant Chorus Will Sing For Teachers

Columbus, O., Apr. 3—(UP)—President Hoover, or General John J. Pershing, 10,000 school children and a chorus of 2000 voices will glorify this year's Fourth of July for the thousands of teachers and educators who will attend the annual convention of the National Education Association here from June 28 to July 4.

Plans for the holiday, which Columbus will dedicate to the national organization, are being prepared by a local committee composed of Superintendent of Columbus Schools J. G. Collicott as chairman; State Director of Education John L. Clifton; Secretary Frank E. Reynolds of the Ohio Education Association; Franklin County Superintendent of Schools George E. Berry; Dr. E. E. Lewis, head of the School of Administration at Ohio State University; and Director George Troutman of the Convention Bureau of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

According to Chairman Collicott, the committee has been advised that President Hoover likely will appear as speaker at the closing session of the convention. The alternate speaker will be General Pershing.

The celebration will be presented in the mammoth Ohio University stadium capable of seating more than 85,000 persons. Ten thousand Columbus school children soon will begin rehearsals for a flag drill in which 20,000 American flags will be used. The chorus will be marshalled from 2,000 members of high school, college and local glee clubs.

The spectacle is planned to be the most pretentious feature ever offered the association.

A committee composed of representatives of all the Ohio colleges and universities is formulating plans for presentation of a pageant in the stadium on the evening of June 30. The pageant, in a series of episodes, will depict the contributions which Ohio has made to national education. Approximately 2000 principals and superintendents will compose the cast.

On the afternoon of June 29, a chorus of 500 voices will sing at Vesper services in Columbus auditorium. The Vesper sermon will be given by Dr. W. O. Thompson, who for 25 years was president of Ohio State University.

MODERN STYLES

YOUR CHILDREN

by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Children should be conditioned to inquiry," says the psychologist.

Translated, that means: "Cultivate the habit of curiosity."

I watched two teachers one afternoon, separately, of course, conducting classes in a public school.

One teacher had this method. After the class had closed their books, she proceeded to ask them questions about what they had learned. So far, so good! When the lesson was over, she asked in a rather final tone that indicated that as far as she was concerned the recitation was over. "Are there any questions?"

The class sat listless and inert. No. they had no questions. The Boston tea party was over, Patrick Henry had delivered a fiery oration on independence—there were no questions. It was clear that the follones were all right and King George was all wrong and they were glad to be through with the whole business for another day.

In another room, I walked into practically the same history lesson but another teacher—quite another teacher. From the very beginning it was clear that what that up and doing young woman was after was not the mere facts of history—the children had read them over and knew them—but she was endeavoring to instill in those boys and girls a thirst for more facts bearing on the question, facts there was no room for in the history books.

The Quest for Learning
She went to England, taking the children with her, and looked across the Atlantic.

She got into Parliament and existing conditions there. She sorted out the policies and the cross purposes of its members.

"I wonder what kind of man So-and-so was," she would say. "Robert, you might read up a bit on him and tell us tomorrow. Just a little to give us an idea of what sort of man he was. Jean, there was more in that episode in Boston than just pitching a lot of tea overboard. I'll let you slip out of ranks and go into the school library. Get Such-and-such a book and read page 50. It won't take you five minutes. Tomorrow please tell us about it. We want to get this thing straight."

Instilling the habit of inquiry, you see, the foundation of all real knowledge and education.

The class was on its toes, all interest—no dead wood there.

Now, mothers are not teaching history. They cannot begin to answer all the questions children ask in the course of a day on this, that and the other thing, nor half, nor a tenth of them. But children's questions should be answered. The young mind needs little encouragement to be curious. What it needs is satisfaction.

She should answer what she can. Father should answer all he can, and above all things, the reference habit should be intelligently cultivated. The children may ask almost anything on earth. And as far as possible they should be given a satisfactory answer. There are a dozen excellent "information" books, or rather sets of books published for children. If the family budget permit, I heartily recommend them.

Teach the children to teach themselves and you'll not need to worry about education.

French Women Darn More than U.S. Sisters

Claude Reeser Weds LaMoille Young Lady

On Friday, March 21st at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Littlewood at LaMoille a ceremony was performed by Rev. McKelvey, pastor of the LaMoille Methodist church which united the lives of Miss Darlene Littlewood and Claude Reeser in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of flowers and ferns and was witnessed by members of the immediate families and a few friends. Mrs. Harold Littlewood of LaMoille played Lohengrins wedding march.

The young couple was attended by Miss Dorothy Littlewood, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Harry Reeser, a brother of the groom.

The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of pale pink chiffon with accessories to match and carried a colonial bouquet of tea roses. The bridesmaid wore a dress of pale green chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the bride's home. The room was artistically decorated in pink and green. The waitresses were Miss Gladys and Esther Swanlund.

Mrs. Reeser is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Littlewood of LaMoille. She is a charming young lady of pleasing personality. She attended the LaMoille school and was graduated from the LaMoille high school. Since graduation she has been employed at the LaMoille Drug Store. The groom is a son of Wm. Reeser of Mendota. The groom attended the Mendota schools. He is an excellent young man and for the past several years has been in the transfer business in Mendota.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeser left Friday afternoon on a short honeymoon trip in Chicago. Upon their return they will make their home in Mendota.

JIM HILL KILLS BLACK EAGLE; IS READY FOR WAR

Ozark Family Expects to Enlist After Death of "Harbinger"

Birch Tree, Mo. — (UP)—Jim Hill killed a large black eagle and turned it over to a deputy game warden recently.

According to ancient legend prevailing about the Wild Irish neighborhood, the appearance of this eagle portends the approach of another war.

Jim Hill's grandfather, a noted fighter, lived in Virginia. Just before the war of 1812, a huge black eagle soared over their plantation. It was killed by one of the Hill boys, and soon they marched away to fight. In 1860 the sons of the Virginia Hill, five in number, moved on to Jack's Fork creek in the Irish Wilderness country and here they have since remained.

The Hills, Rooneys, Davises and others are their kith and kin, and these pioneers dominate the rural districts in several Ozark counties. They are pioneers who hold to the many traditions, legends and superstitions that come up with hill country people. The Hills are believers that the approach of a black eagle means a war may be expected.

Just before the Civil War issued its call to the mountain folk, a huge black eagle appeared in the Jack's Fork region and was killed. Three of the Hills enlisted, and two lost their lives.

The one who returned is the father of the young man who killed the eagle a few days ago.

Again in 1898 before the call for the Spanish war volunteers, and again in 1927 when the World War opened, black eagles soared over the lonely Irish Wilderness and were slain by members of the Hill family.

The Jack's Fork country in Texas county is settled by mountaineers from the hills of Tennessee, Kentucky and the Virginia. These people hold to religion and teachings all their own. A trip through the Irish Wilderness or back along Jack's Fork creek is a visit to a country that might have existed a hundred years ago.

Owing to bad roads there are no motor cars, and there never will be any if the settlers have their way.

There are two beautiful state parks in the Jack's Fork creek country. A black eagle never has been killed there by a deputy game warden. There are plenty of bald eagles, deer, lynx, fox, catamount and other wild game. Good fishing and hunting are plentiful in the Irish Wilderness and the Jack's Fork creek country, and young Jim Hill, now that he has killed his black eagle, will be waiting to enlist either in some man's army or in the services of hunting parties which drift in this spring.

PACIFICS FLEET BIDS FOR SPEED CROWN OF WEST

Empress of Japan Soon Will Launch Attempt to Take Honors

Vancouver, B. C. — (UP)—While steamship lines on the Atlantic are bidding feverishly for supremacy by construction of larger and faster liners a milder form of competition is being enacted on the Pacific.

The Canadian Pacific Steamship Company is bringing to this coast a new palatial liner which outshines anything in regular service on the trans-Pacific route.

When the Empress of Japan, the modern version of the once proud clipper built liner of the same name, arrives here on August 19, a new race for trans-Pacific trade will be commenced.

The largest and fastest liner engaged in regular traffic on the Pacific coast will speed up the schedule of the company giving as frequent a service between the Far East and this continent as is given by other lines with a greater number of ships.

The acquisition of the Empress of Japan will give the company a fleet of four liners on the trans-Pacific run. The fleet comprises the Empresses of Russia, Asia, Canada and Japan.

While the Bremen and Europa are speed champions on the Atlantic the Empress of Japan on this coast will bid for the blue ribbon of the Pacific.

The Empress of Canada at present holds the record of eight days 10 hours and 9 minutes from Yokohama to Victoria. The nearest that any liner has come to this is 10 days.

The Canada and the Japan will pace each other for the speed crown as they both have the same type engines and are capable of 21 knots.

The Empress of Japan is a twin-screw oil-burner of 25,000 tons. It is 640 feet in length, 83 feet breadth and 56 feet deep. Passenger accommodation will be 268 saloon, 164 second, 100 third and 548 steerage making a total of 1080.

In keeping with the war time tradition the liners are of a greyish white color, hence they have been called the greyhounds of the Pacific, reminiscent of the time when these huge vessels carried guns fore and aft to give protection to the passengers and be ready for emergency if pressed into actual wartime service.

DEVELOPS NEW GRAIN

Readyln, Ia., April 2—(AP)—William Shumacher has developed a grain that in the field resembles barley with the color of rye, the flavor of oats and a kernel shaped like wheat.

Schumacher calls it barley, but says it has no barley in its composition. He developed the grain by conducting a hand pollinated cross between bluestem wheat and giant oats, and then by crossing the hybrid thus obtained with bluestem wheat.

This resulted, Schumacher said, in a grain with a large meat and a thin hull, maturing in 90 days. He is experimenting on its value as an early hog feed.

Incendiary Fire In Speedway Grandstand

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 2—(AP)—Fire which police believe was of incendiary origin late last night destroyed part of the grand stand at the Ocean Speedway here from which spectators have witnessed the fastest speed ever attained by a human being on the ground.

Half of the stand, which had a seating capacity of 3,500, went up in flames but one end of the building was saved.

Firemen said footprints were found behind the stand which they said were made by someone carrying kerosene cans. A night watchman said flames burst out soon after two men drove up to the stand around midnight.

The Silver Bullet, speed car owned by Kaye Don, British driver, who is here in an effort to break the world's speed record of 231 miles per hour, was not in the stand.

ENUMERATORS OF CENSUS ARE PAID FOR "PIECE-WORK"

Wages Based On Number Of Names And Farms They Tabulate

BY BESS FURMAN
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Uncle Sam's enormous statistical factory, the census, was functioning busily throughout the United States, with his 120,000 workers turning out facts and figures under a piece-work system.

The enumerator who came, or will come, knocking at the door to include every tiny thread of information in the great fabric of fact, is being paid "by the piece" so much per person and so much per farm enumerated. The pay envelopes vary somewhat according to conditions. For instance, the camping-out woman census taker down in Texas who must travel 50 miles before she makes her first enumeration, is receiving a higher rate from Uncle Sam than the enumerator who is swiftly tally-

MUST ANSWER QUESTIONS

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Uncle Sam long ago foresaw that somebody might refuse to answer census questions and so a law was passed.

It provides that any person who "shall refuse or wilfully neglect to answer any of these questions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." The penalty provided is not more than $100 or 60 days in prison, or both.

The punishment for false answers is greater. Violators may be fined $500 and imprisoned for one year.

ing the inmates of a penitentiary, all of whom are undoubtedly present and already a matter of record.

The 1930 of pay was not announced by the Census Bureau but it was said it would average from $5 to $9 per day. In the census of 1920 nearly all enumerators were paid 4 cents per name and 30 cents per farm.

Time is limited
Census workers are putting in as much overtime as they choose, the one rule being that the job has to be done in two weeks in urban centers and one month in the rural districts.

Under instruction from Uncle Sam, the "big boys," all the census workers are striving for thoroughness as well as speed. They are expected to enumerate about 95 per cent of the population the first time through a district, and to go back soon thereafter and catch up all the loose ends. The supervisor's office Uncle Sam's factory foremen, are also being paid by the job, a flat $1000 plus and additional $1 for each 1,000 persons counted within his district and for each 100 farms therein. Thirty of these supervisors are women. It is a six month's job for each supervisor or with the promise that he will be paid off as soon as he counts and

County Treasurers for the past 48 years

In all fairness to the voting public I should like to have known the actual facts in regard to those who have held the office of County Treasurer for the past 48 years.

It has been said that this office has been held by the same man for the past 48 years. The fact of the matter is that William C. Thompson held the office for one term only. My husband, Dorrance S. Thompson, the present County Treasurer, has been there as Treasurer for the past three years, and is now serving his last year of his only term as County Treasurer.

The following list shows the names of treasurers of Lee County since 1882:
Eight years before I was born:
Josiah Little—1882 to 1887.
Chas. H. Hughes—1887 to 1891.
M. Maloney—1891 to 1895.
Chas. F. Welty—1895 to 1899.
John M. Sterling—1899 to 1903.
W. B. Merriman—1903 to 1907.
John M. Sterling—1907 to 1911.
Frank C. Vaughan—1911 to 1915.
John E. Moyer—1915 to 1919.
William C. Thompson—1919 to 1923.
Chas. H. Eastman—1923 to 1927.
Dorrance S. Thompson—1927 to 1930.

Under the law, a person cannot succeed himself in this office. I have worked in this office as hired help, and have worked hard to learn the business, and feel that I am qualified to fill the position. If I am elected, I will endeavor to give you the best service that there is in me, just as I have always done, as an employee, in the past.

Your vote will be appreciated.

announces the population for each several divisions—township, precinct, county, borough, or city—within his district.

The bureau was expecting more early returns today from small communities. Ceteris paribus, the bureau claimed the honor of being the first incorporated municipality to complete its enumeration. A census district in Kootenai County, Idaho, and one in Morris County, New Jersey, also reported their tabulations complete before the close of the day yesterday.

MEET DIFFICULTIES

Chicago, April 3.—(UP)—The serious business of counting noses in the decennial census has developed here into a proposition of shoving questions through back doors and calling police to identify the enumerators. After reporting some 215,000 names listed and 35,000 homes visited on the first day of the count, the census takers recounted the difficulties they experienced.

Many complained that the custom of barring and double-barring the front door, through fear of bandits posing as gas meter readers and the like, had given them much trouble. One woman, for example, refused to admit an enumerator because she was certain he was a burglar and he had to round up the neighborhood policeman to prove his identity.

Even the less wary householders were not all cordial. Some of them compelled the counters to take the tradesmen's route to the back door and stand outside as though taking an order for eggs.

From other sectors on the census-taking front came such reports as these:

An embarrassed father asked the enumerator to call again next week and "there'll be another name in the family."

An elderly couple reported two children and when asked their ages said: "A boy 46 and a girl 49."

One man, checking off his seven children for the census taker, found himself in the predicament of forgetting the names of three of them.

TEXAS TEAM IS FAVORED TO WIN CHICAGO MATCH

Athens, Tex., High School Team Looks Like It Will Repeat

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Chicago, April 3.—(AP)—The chase for the 1930 national high school basketball championship bounded into the third lap today with the giant Hornets from Athens, Texas, red hot favorites to retain the cherished crown.

Without extending themselves, the husky Texans, routed the fast Lanton, North Dakota, team, 35 of 11, in their first encounter thrust at the large field seeking to dethrone them. They looked every bit as good as last year when they romped through triumphantly even a larger and possibly a better crop of championship contenders.

There were 15 surviving teams, however, many of them dark horses, confident of halting the Hornet parade. Chief among them was Denton, Texas which defeated the titleholders, 24 to 19, for the 1930 Lone Star title. Averaging better than six feet, and playing much the same style of basketball, Denton breezed past the first round easily yesterday by swamping Baylor Institute of Chattanooga, champions of Tennessee, 32 to 15.

Eight of the 16 survivors in the championship scramble today were from Dixie and most of them were representatives of little villages. They were the Giants from Jena, La., a town of 1800 population which offers only the wide open spaces for a gymnasium; Lakeland, Fla.; Savannah, Ga.; Corinth, a small village of 240 population in Kentucky; Linsly Institute of Wheeling, W. Va.; Braselton, a cross-road town of about 60 souls in Georgia; Kavanaugh high of Lawrenceburg, Ky., another village which vows it has the team to beat; and Durham, N. C.

Linsly Institute and Corinth were the only teams in the field forced to play two games to wedge into the third round in the remainder of the field drawing bouts. Corinth defeated Chinook, Mont., 35 to 20 and Linsly won from Spartansburg, S. C., 25 to 22 in their second round skirmishes.

Another of the heavy favorites was Wheatland, Wyo., a band of one-handed artists which submerged Romano, Va., 27 to 14, yesterday.

The pairings for today's championship are:

9 P. M.—Braselton, Ga. vs Kavanaugh, Lawrenceburg, Ky.
10 A. M.—Denton, Texas vs St. Johns Military Academy, Delafield, Wis.
1 P. M.—Durham, N. C. vs Wheatland, Wyo.
4 P. M.—Morgan Park, Chicago vs Savannah, Ga.
5 P. M.—New Brunswick, N. J. vs Ely, Nevada.

7 P. M.—Lakeland, Fla. vs Jena, La.
8 P. M.—Linsly Institute, Wheeling, W. V. vs Corinth, Ky.
9 P. M.—Athens, Tex. vs Y M C A Day School, Chicago

TO DECIDE HOCKEY TITLE

Montreal, April 3.—(AP)—With high hopes of bringing the Stanley Cup back to Canada after a two-year stay in the United States, Les Canadiens, Montreal's flying Frenchmen, go into the second game of the series for the professional hockey championship trophy against the Boston Bruins at the Forum tonight.

The Canadiens gained a big margin in the three game series by their 3 to 0 victory at Boston Tuesday and need to win only one more game to win the championship. If Boston should win tonight's game, the deciding contest will be played at Boston Saturday.

To Make Final Bid For Bowling Title

Cleveland, April 3.—(AP)—Cleveland bowlers, who for a month have been hosts to the American Bowling Congress, tonight will make what is expected to be the best and last important local bid for championship honors when the W. W. Springborn quintet takes the alleys.

The Springborns will roll with teams from Mansfield, Toledo and Sandusky, Ohio; Shamokin and Williamsport, Pa.; Buffalo, Syracuse and Rochester, N. Y.; Chicago, East Aurora and Galesburg, Ill.; Detroit and Bensor Harbor, Mich.; Milwaukee and Kansas City.

They will find no change in the stands as last night's best scores were 2,885 by Carr Brothers of Bedford, Cleveland suburb, and 2,845 by the Travis-Pennberton Sport Shop of Youngstown, Ohio.

Harold Asplund of Denver, Colo., and Billy Mills of Pontiac, Mich., both youngsters at bowling, showed the way to the veterans yesterday. Asplund rolled 720 to land second in the singles and fifth in the all events at 1,938, while Mills took fourth in the alleys with 1,942.

Cleveland Polo Team Wins Championship

New York, April 3.—(AP)—Out of three attempts, the Cleveland Polo Association has gained one of the National indoor polo championships. Cleveland, sole middle western contender in the handicap events, entered three teams in the low goal championships and came through to victory only in Class C.

The Cleveland B and C class contenders were defeated in their first games, but the class C trio of W. H. Zink, Capt. C. Radcliff and W. H. White won three successive contests, taking the championship last night by defeating the New Jersey representative, the Ridgewood Polo club, 7½ to 3.

Winston guest's great optimists had no trouble in overcoming a six goal handicap to defeat Pennsylvania Military college, 15 to 8½ in a first round Class A game.

Colorado has the greatest average of altitude of any state in the country.

Values Hands at $100,000

Probably the most valuable hands in radio are those of Red Norvo, xylophone wizard of KSTP, St. Paul, shown here. He has them insured for $100,000 against accident or injury. In order to keep the policy effective, he must not play baseball or participate in any sport which might injure them. He also must take daily finger exercise. "JUNK MAN" OF WALL ST. DIED OF INDIGESTION

Roland Smythe Famous For His Dealing In Worthless Paper

New York, April 3.—(AP)—Wall Streets' junk man, Roland M. Smythe, dealer in extinct securities, is dead.

Engraved paper, representing billions in forlorn hopes, burst bubbles, and defunct wild cats passed through his hands during the half century he conducted his unique business from a little office at 2 Broadway.

Smythe died yesterday of acute indigestion at his home in Brooklyn. He was 75 years old.

He embarked on his unusual business career when in the early 80's while employed by a stock brokerage firm, he was handed some repudiated South Carolina bonds with instructions to destroy them. He sold one through another broker to the state of South Carolina for $1,200 and not caring for the rush and bustle of the street he thereafter turned his attention to a trade in obsolete and extinct securities.

He became an expert authority on the value—if any—of old securities and was frequently consulted by bankers and brokers concerning the worth of stock and bond certificates which came into their hands.

Now and then some of his dodges came to life. One time he sold a Yonkers doctor enough bonds of a Pennsylvania coal company to paper the walls of his den. The doctor paid $40 for the bundle. Coal was later discovered on the property and the doctor was paid $14,000 for his wallpaper.

During the administration of Mayor John J. Hyman he created a laugh, when he asked the Mayor to help him find some missing allens. Two detectives were sent to his office and he read from the fourth book of Moses the names of 12 sons of Jacob. The detectives carefully noted the twelve names and departed somewhat bewildered.

He was born in Dublin, Ireland, where his grandfather was Lord Mayor.

Buy GASOLINE That Burns » » » COMPLETELY

You may use the finest motor oil that money can buy---yet if that oil becomes diluted with unburned gasoline, it will not properly protect your car. For gasoline-thinned motor oil loses its lubricating qualities---actually becomes dangerous to motor parts. Thus may your car be doomed to premature old age.

The remedy is Smith High Test PARAMOUNT Gasoline. Here is a motor fuel both highly volatile and combustible. Every bit of it goes into power in the combustion chamber---not into crank-case seepage. Give your motor a fair chance to serve its normal life---use PARAMOUNT Gasoline.

Tough Pull for High Gear

This car might have been able to pull all the hills around Milwaukee in high gear, but when it ran into this climb, even low gear was useless. The car tried its monkey stunt on the center pier of a steel bridge. After it fastened itself to the pier, the owner and his 2-year-old son got out unhurt.

Reverse charges. Mrs. Lambert, secretary to Mrs. Berkeley, requests an interview with Dundee and begs him not to consider any solution of the case which reflects on Doris's honesty and loyalty. Tells of her own life for the last 10 years. Dundee asks if she can give any explanation of why Johnson should steal Phyllis Crosby's miniature.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXXIII

"PLEASE tell me frankly what you are thinking, Mrs. Lambert," Dundee urged gently.

The social secretary got control of herself with an obvious effort. She even managed to smile slightly.

"You startled me," she confessed. "I know how Seymour—"

Mr. Crosby—treasured that miniature of Phyllis. It is an exquisite thing, a remarkable likeness of one of the most beautiful girls I ever saw. But as you said, it is a thing a burglar could not sell, without betraying himself. It seemed absurd to me that a burglar should steal it."

"To me, too," Dundee assured her quietly. "But, please, Mrs. Lambert—"

"I know!" Gigi interrupted, striking her small brown hands together. "Everyone says Johnson looked like a gentleman, and I'm here to tell you he had S. A. plus—in a deadly, quiet sort of way, if you know what I mean. Now, look! Doris half-way recognized him. Doris was Phyllis Crosby's maid, Johnson, or whatever his real name is, steals a miniature of Phyllis, which he can't sell, and which, therefore, he wants for his own sake! I'll bet my new golf clubs it was Johnson's showing up here as a servant that threw Doris off the track, so she couldn't remember where she'd seen him before—"

"Hush, Gigi! You're being ridiculous!" Mrs. Lambert commanded sternly, but Dundee saw that her face had gone ghostly pale.

"I'm not either being ridiculous!" Gigi protested. "I heard Dad and Abbie rowing about Mr.

Murder Backstairs

NEA

by ANNE AUSTIN AUTHOR OF "THE AVENGING PARROT" "THE BLACK PIGEON," ETC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

DORIS MATTHEWS, lady's maid, is murdered in a summer-house on the Berkeley estate, by blow from heavy perfume flask, given Mrs. GEORGE BERKELEY by SEYMOUR CROSBY, engaged to CLORINDA BERKELEY, whose secret blinds the rock-weighted body when it is taken from the lake by DETECTIVE DUNDEE.

Evidence involves Mrs. Berkeley, CLORINDA, DICK BERKELEY, Doris's niece, EUGENE ARNOLD, chauffeur, and GIGI BERKELEY, 15, who unaccountably sprinkled everyone Friday evening with perfume from murder flask.

An unfinished letter of Doris to her sister in London almost brings about the arrest of Seymour Crosby, and links the maid's murder with the sudden death of PHYLIS CROSBY 14 months before in London. Dundee cables Scotland Yard, then grills Crosby, who violently denies charges of having bribed or killed the maid, and having caused his wife's death, officially pronounced suicide.

When it is found that HARVEY JOHNSON, valet of Mrs. Crosby, has robbed Mrs. Berkeley and Crosby, CAPTAIN STRAWN considers the murder solved, throws out police dragnet for Johnson and leaves Dundee in charge at the Berkeley home.

Mrs. LAMBERT, secretary to Mrs. Berkeley, requests an interview with Dundee and begs him not to consider any solution of the case which reflects on Doris's honesty and loyalty. Tells of her own life for the last 10 years. Dundee asks if she can give any explanation of why Johnson should steal Phyllis Crosby's miniature.

NOVELIST SEES MARRIAGES AS OUT OF STYLE

Future Woman Described
By Cosmo Hamilton As Athletic, Independent

New York.—(UP)—Cosmo Hamilton, novelist, in Mentor Magazine issued today declares the word "marriage" a Chaucerian word, and "an insult to their intelligence as well as their pride."

"With what amazement and amusement our Bright Young People will shortly look back at that ineffably stupid, shameful and tyrannical institution to which their fathers and mothers squirmingly submitted themselves in unenfranchised days," Hamilton wrote. "With what astonishment and contempt will they, easily within the next few years, talk in moments of leisure, if among all the noises of progress they can hear each other's words, of prehistoric things—banns, bridesmaids, trousseaux, the marriage service, the giggling honeymoon and that most disgraceful of fakes, divorce."

"As good as men, and better, far more athletic and self-providing than the modern race of maids, workers every one, they choose a man if they want one as a hobby from time to time," Hamilton says in discussing the future woman. "Do they share the same rooms? Oh, no. They can't be bothered with his clothes, his inhibitions, his complexes."

"And as to the church and law, except on one essential and proper point in which the latter is concerned, they have been utterly swept aside. They do not look to their friend for money. That they earn for themselves. He is purely a week-end companion so long as he's merry and bright, plays a good game of tennis and golf and can keep the engine right. Otherwise—good-by."

"If there's a child, mutually agreed upon of course, sentiment never dies—it bears his name, and the law has been rearranged to see to it that he is wholly responsible—unless by mutual consent."

"And what charming children these are! No longer poor little accidents struggling through early years in atmosphere of enforced happiness, rows, and wrangles, scenes of painful recrimination, legalized cruelty. Children of joy, little sunbeams, eager to welcome their parents, together or separately."

MAN AND WIFE DELIGHTED WITH NEW KAVATONE

Word of Mouth Praise One of Main Reasons for Sensational Success of New Medicine.

In one family a husband and wife will be found to be taking Kavatone with excellent results. In another family a mother and her children will be taking it. Again, it frequently happens that one member of a family will start taking Kavatone with such happy results that soon the entire family is using this marvelous new medicine as a guide to health and strength.

MRS. DAVID MYLER.

These people in turn spread the cheerful gospel among other relatives and friends and the result is an ever widening circle of people who are finding in Kavatone the end of a long search for relief from pain and suffering. One of the happiest experiences of the Kavatone Man is to listen to the stories told by the people who have been freed from ailments when they had almost given up hope. Such a case is that of Mrs. David Myler of Galesburg, Ill. Mrs. Myler, like countless other women, was induced to try Kavatone because of the marvelous manner in which it restored her husband to health. In talking to the Kavatone Man she said: "For a long time I had suffered from kidney trouble. I had a constant dull pain across my back that at times would become so severe that I would almost break down and cry. In addition I suffered with stomach trouble and fermented and undigested food in my stomach would cause gas and gas pains would shoot through by body like electric needles. I became so weak that some mornings it would take all the strength I could muster to get out of bed and dress myself. I was troubled by severe headaches, too, that would sometimes last for days before I could get rid of them."

"My husband started taking Kavatone after we had heard so much about it everywhere and from the first minute I could see that it was doing him a world of good. We waited until he had taken all of one bottle and then I started in, too. To my delight and surprise, it helped me exactly as it had my husband. I started to sleep all night without having to get up. My stomach trouble disappeared. My nervousness went away at the same time and I started gaining weight. I am the happiest woman in the world today because of what Kavatone has done for me. I cannot say enough for this wonderful medicine and am glad of the chance to tell the whole world how much it has helped me."

Letters as enthusiastic as the above are on file from sufferers from rheumatism, neuritis, liver trouble, nervousness and other ailments.

The Kavatone Man is located at the FORD HOPKINS CO., DIXON, ILL., where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this much talked of medicine. Everyone is cordially invited to call at the store, meet and get acquainted with the Kavatone Man and see the famous Kavatone figure which is used in the demonstration. You will be entirely welcome to call whether you wish to buy or not.

OLDEST SEA CAPTAIN?
London—Captain John Dowdy of Norfolk, claims to be England's oldest sea captain. He ran away to sea at the age of 13 and has been at it ever since. He has been shipwrecked, sailed 460 miles in an open boat, and was nearly eaten by cannibals.

Ants can easily carry twice their own weight.

Death Is Probed
Washington, April 2.—(AP)—The Washington Post says today that the death of Basil Miles, diplomat and economist, after an operation in June, 1928, is under investigation by the District Attorney's office, partly as a result of information furnished by the Department of Justice. Miles' widow, the former Mrs. Margaret Peabody Savell, has since married Colonel Henry H. Rogers, wealthy oil man. Colonel Rogers is the father of the former Millicent Rogers, whose marriage and subsequent separation and divorce from Count Salm von Hoogstraeten drew the attention of society in America and abroad.

The Post says that Assistant District Attorney Neil Burkinshaw has been busily engaged in the inquiry into Miles' death but that he has given no inkling of the reasons for the investigation.

"ANY OLD RAGS?"
Moscow—The Soviet government is collecting all the trash throughout the country to convert into useful articles of export. At a recent concert of Anna Luboshitz, cellist, admission was "six pounds of rags or paper, old bottles, tin cans, bones, or a single pair of old rubbers."

LOOK WHAT YOU CAN DO WITH A CATERPILLAR

Arthur Smith of Sycamore, Illinois, operated a "Caterpillar" 318 hours at a cost of only $83.48 for oil and gas, and only one hour lost to replace a governor weight. Here's what Mr. Smith did in that time: Plowed 120 acres of land, disced 252 acres and cut 67 acres of grain.

Clarence Lockwood of Marengo, Illinois, pulled 26 feet of discs and covered 8 1/2 acres per hour, with wet soil. Mr. Lockwood is proud of this job.

Figure up how many horses and hired men you would need to do the same amount of work in the same time—then you'll realize what a big time and labor-saver the "Caterpillar" really is. And the "Caterpillar" does this rain or shine, regardless of the prevailing weather conditions.

Is it any wonder that more and more farmers are getting the "Caterpillar" to do their work? You, too, can realize these benefits by having a "Caterpillar." Learn how this new model "Caterpillar" soon pays for itself. Mail coupon below for complete information and free booklet, also list of jobs and time required to do them the "Caterpillar" way.
